MAXIMILIAN TALKS TO HUN DEPUTIES

Declares Abject Peace Cannot Be Made Without Breakdown

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 23.—Peace conversations between Berlin and Washington have reached a critical point, according to Prince Max, the German imperial chancellor, speaking before the Reichstag yesterday. In the course of his address he urged that debate on the situation be restricted as much as possible.

"Today, therefore, I am going to say only this regarding the international situation," he continued. "The President's answer to the peace move of the German government has in all countries brought the question of a peace of justice or a peace of violence to the highest point. It is continued."

"President Wilson's last note did not make clear to the German people how this plain agitation will end. His next answer will perhaps bring definite certainty. Until then, we must in all our thoughts and in our actions prepare for both eventualities—first, that the enemy government are anxious for war, in which case there is no chance for us but to put ourselves in a posture of defense with all the strength of our people driven to the last extremity."

"Should this necessity arise, I have no doubt that the German government in the name of the German people will issue a call for national defense in the same way that it spoke for the German people when it took action for peace. He who honestly took a stand on the basis of peace will also undertake the duty of not submitting to a peace of violence without a fight. The government which would act otherwise would be left to the mercy of the fighting and working people. It would be swept away by public opinion."

What Can Germans Expect?
"There is also another possibility. The German people must not be blind-brought to the conference table. The German people today have the right to ask, if peace is realized on the basis of President Wilson's conditions, what they mean for our future. Our answers to the President's question must be framed on the German people's understanding of that question. What it now wants is clearness."

"The decision will be of stupendous import. It will not be our strength that will decide, but it will be what is thought to be right in free discussion with our opponents that will give the decision. This is a great effort for a proud people accustomed to victory! The legal questions involved will not stop at our national boundaries, which will be never of our own accord open for violence."

"The principles upon which we have agreed as a rule of conduct also involve internal questions. From many quarters it has been expressed that an acceptance of President Wilson's conditions would mean submission—German submission—to an anti-German court of justice which would decide legal questions entirely from the point of view of its own interests. It is clear, why then is it the extreme apostles of force in the Entente fear the council chamber as the sully fear the court of justice?"

Must Give Up Something
"The essence of President Wilson's program for a league of nations cannot be achieved when all peoples have not the right of autonomy and determination. This realization of community law means the abandonment of part of the unqualified independence which hitherto has been the indication of sovereignty, both by us and others. Should we as a nation maintain as fundamental the national egoism which until a short time ago was the dominant force of the people's life, there would be no restitution and no renovation for us. There would be a feeling of bitterness which would cripple us for generations."

"But if we comprehend that the significance of this fight is not in the above all, victory for the idea of justice, and if we do not reject this idea, but submit with all good faith, then we shall find in it a cure for our present wounds and a reservoir of future strength."

Prince Maximilian said he would deny that heavy opposition in Germany must be conquered before the ideal league of nations could be realized, but he continued: "Whether the next few days or weeks shall call us to fight on, or open the way for peace, there is no doubt that we are now equal to the task of either way by carrying out the government's program and definitely breaking away from the old system."

Parliamentarism
The imperial chancellor then discussed electoral and parliamentary reform, and called before the Reichstag, one of which ended members of the house to enter the government without resigning, and another proposing a change in the laws regarding the responsibility of the chancellor."

Deputies will take part in the election of imperial policy and the name of the chancellor will be responsible without being ministers. This new way is proposed for arriving at responsible conduct of imperial affairs in the parliamentary way."

"We are convinced that it will supply not only the government, but indirectly parliament, with precisely the force from the people which have hitherto not been utilized."

Prince Maximilian said he hoped soon to announce results of preliminary negotiations to obtain a legal extension of the chancellor's responsibility, to be secured by the formation of a state tribunal.

Alfred Lorraine, he said, "involves, as a natural consequence, a new mode of government in the Reichstag."

The chancellor declared it was the aim of himself and his colleagues to establish the political authority of the German people.

The chancellor said that individual members of the government at first had different standpoints but now had been brought nearer together.

"The German people have long been in the saddle," he said. "Now it is to ride."

"Our first and last thought," the chancellor continued, "is for the German people who are defending themselves against superior forces and whom we must defend against unjust charges. We must think he can attack our army without also attacking the honor of our people."

"The lot of our soldiers today is terribly hard. They fight with anxiety for the home land and with their minds on peace and they hold their ground. We trust and thank them. We cry to them:

"The homeland will not abandon you. What you want, what it can give in man, material and food, that you shall have."

War Restrictions
The extraordinary war-time measures, the chancellor explained, could not yet be dispensed with but they could be carried out only by the chancellor who would be responsible to the Reichstag for their application."

"His Majesty's decrees which I announced recently now have been issued," he went on. "They concern not only the censorship, the right of public meeting and restrictions on personal liberty, but have to do with economic, social and political matters."

"If legal military commanders disagree with the civil authorities, the decision must be reached immediately by the highest commander, who will not be able to promulgate any decision to which agreement is not given by myself or my representative, namely Secretary of State Groeber."

"Care will be taken that the state of siege is maintained in the spirit in which I assumed the functions of the government and in which I am resolved to discharge them."

New Reichstag Powers
Speaking of the powers to be vested in the Reichstag under the terms of the new measure, the chancellor said the bill provided for the compulsory embodiment in the constitution of the fundamental idea of the new form of government. He said the effect would be to make the Reichstag the people's house of representatives, which should be responsible in the decision of the most important questions for the nation, namely of peace and war."

"That means peaceful development of the empire and its relations with other powers," he continued. "In such an extension of the people's rights, the imperial government is willing to lend a hand when a league of nations has taken practical form. When such a league pulls an end to all secret separate treaties I am confident that all agreements can be amplified in this sense."

Some Good Qualities
The chancellor said the German nation had long possessed political rights which its neighbors envied. He spoke in praise of the municipal and Reichstag elections and said that although the German people had not made use of its power when dealing with vital questions, the development which had occurred at the end of September had changed everything."

There lies the guarantee of the continuance and growth of the new system," he added. "This is a better and more real guarantee than any law or paragraph."

The German people, he declared, must not report to forms of government which they did not in their hearts believe in for the sake of foreign countries, or to meet the needs of the moment."

"The enemy is at our gates," he said. After paying tribute to the men at the front, he added:

"And elements are to be found in every army, but the fundamental will of the people's army is opposed to them."

"My program of October 6 endeavored honesty for persons under sentence for political crimes, especially those connected with labor troubles, street demonstrations, etc. For reaching amnesty of this nature was proposed by the emperor and has now been applied."

Many persons had been set at liberty," Prince Maximilian added, "only with strong misgivings on the part of the government, but the conviction of the necessity of leniency and a trustful policy decided the matter."

PLENTY OF COAL FOR USE OF ARMY PLEDGED--HAYES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 23.—Assurances that the coal miners of the country will do their utmost to bring up sufficient coal to meet the needs of the armies in Europe in the way of munitions, food and other supplies, were contained in a message cables by Frank J. Hayes, president of the United Mine Workers of America, to General Pershing in France today.

The message was in response to one from General Pershing to the federal fuel administration a few days ago, setting forth the necessity of a maximum output of coal. President Hayes' message reads:

"In this crucial hour the coal miners of America realize their responsibility and will continue to do their full duty."

"While your indomitable soldiers and their brave allies under Marshal Foch are fighting civilization's battle and winning at the point of their victorious bayonets the peace for which we stand, the mining people of America, with depleted numbers, are breaking production records. They will stand, steadfast and true, until their comrades in the field, under your leadership, achieve complete victory. This we pledge to you."

"NEWTON D. BAKER,
Secretary of War,
The White House, Washington, Oct. 23, 1918."

"My Dear Mr. Secretary—I am very glad to have your letter of this morning reporting that more than two million American soldiers have sailed from the ports of this country to participate in the war overseas. I am sure that this will be a matter of deep gratification and reassurance to the country and that every one will join me in continuing the war and navy departments upon the steady accomplishment in this all-important application of force to the liberation of the world."

"Cordially and sincerely yours,
WOODROW WILSON,
Hon. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War."

DECREASE IN NUMBER OF CASES IN CAMP

of several government departments declared they were convinced, after an inquiry, that the disease was brought to this country through the neutral channels and not by malicious methods.

Outbreaks in Africa
CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Oct. 23.—The influenza epidemic is diminishing in the larger towns in South Africa, but there remain serious local outbreaks throughout the country. The death toll in Johannesburg last week was 600 and in the Kimberley district 4000. Of these 600 were Europeans.

1,372 New Cases
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Seventy-two deaths from influenza and 1372 new cases have been reported today to the health officer here. This was the greatest number since the appearance of the epidemic.

Masks are appearing on the streets and in all public places in ever increasing numbers. Crammed men and women are in the minority.

San Jose Report
SAN JOSE, Oct. 23.—San Jose had twelve fatalities in the influenza epidemic today, the largest total since the disease became rampant here. In spite of the larger number of deaths, however, only thirty-one new cases were reported by the city health officer. Dr. Joseph Regill was one of the victims.

May Raise Quarantine
CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Although the influenza epidemic is still spreading in southern Illinois, conditions in northern and central sections of the state showed such improvement that Dr. St. Clair Drake, state public health director, began making plans for raising the quarantine in communities where conditions have already returned nearly to normal.

LIMA, Peru, Tuesday, Oct. 23.—Peruvians generally approve of President Wilson's note to Germany and express their admiration of his stand for democratic principles and international justice. In President Wilson's speech the Peruvians see, hope for a solution of the boundary dispute between this country and Chile.

gram is contemplated by making public correspondence between Secretary Baker and President Wilson, showing that more than 2,000,000 American soldiers have embarked for the war overseas.

Approval of the president's action was voiced everywhere among officials, who declared the note demanded the surrender upon which America and the Allies insist, and at the same time held up to the German people a picture of their situation in a way likely to hasten their rise to throw out the Kaiser and his war lords completely.

In Congress the expressions of leaders indicated a divided opinion. Chairman Hitchcock of the senate foreign relations committee approved the note in unqualified terms, declaring it called for surrender and would create a political crisis in Germany. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader and ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee, expressed regret the president had entered upon any discussion with the German government, and declared any negotiations should follow a report from General Foch that the German armies had surrendered.

Sudden Determination
All Washington was surprised by news that the note had been sent, cried in the streets by the newsmen with excited shouts after nine o'clock, just eleven hours after the official text of the last German communication had been delivered by Frederick Oederlin, the Swiss charge. During the afternoon, it had been stated authoritatively that there would be an announcement of the President's decision before tomorrow morning and the understanding was that exchanges between Washington, London and Paris still were proceeding. About midday there was a flurry of interest when Secretaries Lansing and Daniels and General Marsh, chief of staff, were called to the White House, but if the decision was communicated then, these officials kept the secret well.

It was late in the evening when word that Secretary Lansing would see newspaper men at 9 o'clock followed a conference between Lansing and Secretary Tumulty.

How the note is received by the people of Allied countries will be felt with the greatest interest. So far as the Allied governments are concerned, it is assumed they have been informed and are in entire accord with the culminating step of the President's policy. Exchanges have been going on since the wireless version of the note on Monday.

The official translation into English made at the Berlin foreign office and delivered with the German text does not differ materially from the wireless version and slight verbal differences in the latter tending to make more obscure some rather vague phrases in the original may have been due to errors of transmission.

INDICT PUBLISHER FOR DISLOYALTY
MANKATO, Minn., Oct. 23.—The federal grand jury here tonight returned two indictments against Albert Steinhilber, publisher of the New 12th (Minn.) Post, charging disloyal articles were printed in it. The grand jury acted several hours after District Judge Booth had quashed an indictment returned against Steinhilber on the ground that it embraced too many charges.

Steinhilber probably will be arraigned tomorrow. One indictment returned tonight is based on articles printed in 1917, and the other refers to articles printed this year.

FEDERAL TEACHERS' AGENCY AUTHORIZED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Wilson has authorized the establishment of the Federal Teachers' Agency, a bureau to be known as a school board service section, to meet the shortage of instructors in schools and colleges, estimated at reaching 30,000.

The purpose of the section, an announcement today said, will be to assist in finding teachers for colleges, normal and technical schools, superintendents and principals of schools, and teachers and supervisors of special subjects in secondary and elementary schools.

As in other lines, the shortage in the teaching profession due to call for military and industrial service is most marked in certain localities. The bureau of education has received a number of letters describing conditions as serious. It will be the work of the new section to aid in redistributing the available teaching force of the country.

The section of the bureau will be free and will be largely in the nature of a registration service to bring teachers and school officials together.

PLAIN SPEAKING

President Wilson's latest answer to Germany's latest note does more than carry on a peace debate; it advances the negotiation and shifts the scene to Europe. It is worth keeping in mind that the exchange of notes between President Wilson and the "new German government" has resulted in the President's complying with Germany's request of the first note. In the first communication Germany asked the President to arrange for an armistice, offering to accept a peace based on various of his public utterances. The President declined to pass this note on to the Allies, but asked who are you and what do you represent? The latest German note purported to answer these questions. Throughout the country the answers were generally regarded as evasive. While finding them far from satisfactory, the President does announce that he "feels that he cannot decline to take up with the governments with which the government of the United States is associated the question of an armistice."

In his latest note President Wilson consistently maintains his attitude—a very important one in dealing with a tricky foe. He accepts at their face value the representations of the German government—and in accepting them he applies a fact test to their sincerity. As a preliminary to peace discussion he agrees to an armistice, as requested by Germany, but the terms of the armistice must be arranged by the military advisers of the Allied powers and of the United States. Acceptance of these terms would, of course, amount to a military surrender by the German army in the field. For the President specifies "such an armistice as will fully protect the interests of the peoples involved and insure to the associated governments the unrestricted power to safeguard and enforce the details of the peace to which the German government has agreed." In other words, the armistice offered involves unconditional surrender in the field. In this instance the President reveals in express terms his purpose—something he usually leaves to inescapable inference. He says: "Should such terms of armistice be suggested, their acceptance by Germany will afford the best concrete evidence of her unequivocal acceptance of the terms and principles of peace, from which the whole action proceeds."

If the new German government has power to accept the armistice terms, the President does indicate that he and he doubtless speaks for the Allies will enter into peace negotiations.

So much deals with the diplomatic answer. The rest of the note is shrewdly diplomatic—but is the kind that has the true American ring—the kind that an audience gets with "that's the stuff." It is the plainest speaking the President has done. He will not breast-charge even Germany. If you accept the armistice terms laid down, here's fair warning of just what they mean.

And at this point the president lays aside diplomatic inferences and diplomatic language. He does not question that the new German government is struggling toward a democratic form, but he reminds the new government that it has not yet arrived. It does not appear that a government fully responsible to the people has been worked out, nor are there guarantees of its permanence. The power of the king of Prussia to control the policy of the empire is unimpaired. The very men who are leaving the Kaiser out of reckoning—the men who have dropped the word "imperial" from the title of the government, these very men hold their power by initiative and by grace of the same Kaiser, reduced perhaps to king of Prussia, but still Wilhelm. And notice is served "that the nations of the world do not and cannot trust the world of those who have hitherto been the masters of German policy, and to point out once more that in concluding peace and attempting to undo the infinite injuries and injustices of this war the government of the United States cannot deal with any but veritable representatives of the German people who have been assured."

If the Kaiser remains in the saddle, there can be no terms but surrender. In all his peace utterances the president has kept to the fore this one thing as the most important—the Hohenzollerns and the military masters must be reduced to political impotence. Territorial adjustments, reparations, returning of the loot—all these are necessary for righting wrongs committed; the President looks, however, chiefly to the future to the preventing of the committing of wrong.

Now that the negotiations have passed to the chancelleries of the Allied powers, it is to be hoped that the same broad view will obtain and that the "big thing" be not lost sight of in the welter of lesser things.

PAN-GERMANIC?

The proposal of the German members of the Austrian parliament to form a separate state, which is to have a direct voice in the settlement of international questions consequent on peace is so far from the usual German stand on middle Europe matters that it will be viewed with grave suspicion by the Allied statesmen.

Undoubtedly, the German population within the Austrian empire has certain distinct rights which should be respected by those who advise together on the rearrangement of Europe. These people constitute the major portion of the Austrian state whose capital is Vienna, and they also cross boundaries into the Tyrol, Bohemia, and other principalities, whose political boundaries, for historical and dynamic reasons do not coincide precisely with their racial divisions. These Germans have direct contact at one point or another with their fellow Teutons within the German empire. It has always been expected that when the Austrian empire should break up, these people would naturally direct their political allegiance toward Berlin. Any effort to prevent a union of the Germans in Austria with the Germans in the German empire would be, in fact, a purely hostile effort of powers whose interest was to keep the German state feeble at the expense of racial unity.

The action that has taken place now at Vienna appears to be quite contrary to any union with Berlin. In reality, it may be directed from Berlin. One of the primary demands of those who are leading the "Teuton-Austrian" state in that they shall have access to the Adriatic sea. Now, the fact is that the German race at no point comes in contact with the Mediterranean sea or any of its arms. The natural path of the Germans into the ocean is through the Baltic and the North sea. If the Germans in Austria should pay allegiance to the government at Berlin, they could expect, of course, to reach the sea by way of such ports as Bremen and Hamburg.

But if these Germans in Austria are an entirely separate state, they will be entirely cut off from the sea. As such, they could make a plea, as could the Magyars, of Hungary, for an artificial pathway to the sea. Such an artificial sea route and port has been favorably discussed for the Swiss. The Serbians are to be given ports on the Adriatic and possibly also on the Aegean. The Bulgarians have already been accorded ports on the Aegean. Even though the Magyars are on the losing side in this war, it is quite within the possibility that they will be given a trade route through the proposed Jugo Slav state to the Adriatic.

Realizing this, the Teutonic scheme for a separate state of the German speaking peoples in Austria is very conceivably devised from Berlin. The Hohenzollerns are trying to save what they can from the wreck of "Mitteleuropa." If by this subterfuge they can have the Allies concede to the Germans in Austria a strip of land from Vienna to the Adriatic, a few years later on, when the inertia of peace has abated the active power of the anti-German feeling, a union might easily be effected between the greater Germany and the lesser Germany whose capital is at Vienna. So Berlin would still have its opening into the Mediterranean.

CLOSE SALOONS

Those of us who believe that the saloons should be closed and closed permanently, because they are saloons, are likely to weaken our position in demanding that they be closed, temporarily, for this that or the other reason. If they should be closed for conservation of food, they should be closed for that reason and those who urge that as their reason should not object to their reopening when the occasion no longer pertains. Likewise, on the influenza epidemic. Comparisons, it would seem, are odious in this connection and had best not be made.

But on the straight issue as to whether the saloons should be closed during the period of the epidemic, we can see no reason why they should not be closed. No unessential congregating places should be allowed to remain open. The saloons are unessential. They sell that which reduces resistance to contagion of all sorts. In the east and in some places in California the closing of the saloons was one of the first steps taken to combat the spread of influenza. They should be closed in Fresno—why are they not?

HEAVY WORK FOR Y. M. C. A. IN SIBERIA

VLADIVOSTOK, Sept. 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Demands upon the Young Men's Christian Association secretaries who are accompanying the Entente nations in their expedition against the Bolsheviks in Siberia have been so great that they have been compelled to enlist Y. M. C. A. service the convalescing troops and to utilize the volunteer services of several of the Stevens railway corps from the United States. Virtually all the Y. M. C. A. secretaries have been working eighteen hours a day.

Instead of an easy march through-out the country, the Allied expedition developed into a fight with mile. First aid supplies were more pressing needs than were photographs, games and athletic equipment. The demands upon the Y. M. C. A. volunteer service were so great that supplies which ordinarily would have lasted a month were exhausted in a week. Cars have been sent with each contingent of troops to the furthest possible limit, and from them have been distributed in times of stress hot tea, coffee, cigarettes, tobacco, chocolate, biscuits, sausage and other useful supplies.

The service is becoming indispensable to the men in the field. The Japanese soldiers appear to be as fully appreciative as their western brothers.

A report by Secretary Heald says: "By 4 a. m. Japanese soldiers were knocking on the doors of the camp, and no refusal to open quieted them. There is no chance for the secretary in charge to sleep after they begin until the day's work is over, and that is rather hard on the next morning. Secretaries find it impossible to get more than three or four hours' sleep."

To address is a novelty, and food goes uneaten because they cannot steal time to eat."

A refrigerator car service has been added recently. Thirty minutes after the doors were opened, in the first instance, 500 bottles of cold soft drink had been sold and consumed by the thirsty soldiers.

KING AND QUEEN GO BY AIR ROUTE TO VISIT BRUGES

DUNKIRK, Oct. 23.—King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium visited Bruges by airplane Tuesday. They left Dunkirk at 8:45 o'clock in the morning and landed at Bruges half an hour later. They visited the streets of the city and were given a joyful welcome by the populace.

SON OF PRESIDENT OF COLOMBIA DIES OF SPANISH GRIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—President Suarez of Colombia, unable to attend the funeral services for his 19-year-old son, Gabriel, which were held here today, cabled to Dr. Carlos Uribe, the Colombian minister to the United States, that he had hoped to come to America to take the body home. If not, he would order it shipped back some time in the future. Meanwhile temporary internment was made in Calvary cemetery, Brooklyn.

Young Suarez was a student at the plant of the Westinghouse Electric Company in Pittsburgh, and died in a sanitarium October 14 after a week's illness of Spanish influenza.

HUN HAND IS SEEN IN TRADE FIGHT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Receipt by New York exporters within the last few days of scores of cable messages from Brazilian customers, requesting cancellation of orders for goods already shipped, was said tonight to be under investigation by trade associations to determine whether a new form of German propaganda, designed to injure American business in South America, had made its appearance.

JAPANESE ADMIRAL WANTS VICTORY

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 23.—On their way to England, France and Italy, where they will visit the battle fronts and the fleets of the Allied nations, Rear-Admiral K. Yoshida of the Japanese navy and a party of Japanese naval officers arrived here today from Tokyo. During the Russo-Japanese war, Admiral Yoshida was staff commander of the Japanese fleet.

"We must fight on to complete victory—then peace," said the admiral tonight. He added that the Japanese nation advocated an honorable peace, and unconditional surrender of the German armies.

MAY RELIEVE MEN FOR NEW ADVANCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Further indications of impending major attack by the American armies on the Verdun front came today in reports of fierce fighting around Vouziers, where the French are hammering at the flank of the first position that appears to have been holding up the general American movement. Official German reports show the intensity of the fighting and admit advances. There is little doubt that the enemy views the action as of great importance.

The line here forms almost a right angle with the French forces, which have crossed the Aisne, heading eastward through the hilly and wooded region north of Grand Pre. The Americans stand along the base of the angle, heading northward into the same difficult territory, and the fighting today indicated a pincer movement to force the enemy out of the angle completely into the open ground beyond.

If this is achieved, the left flank of General Liggett's American army will be released, and observers here feel confident that an American drive possibly covering the whole American front on both sides of the Meuse will shortly follow. The objective of such a thrust would be primarily, it is said, the smashing of the German left flank between Metz and Sedan.

PLANES CHECK GERMAN TRAINS

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 23.—(By The Associated Press).—American bombing airplanes and aerial machine gunners were busy today in checking German troop movements toward the fighting front. At midday two squadrons of bombers attacked German lines with excellent results. Later about 120 machines attacked enemy troop concentrations in the woods in the region of Remonville.

The attack on Bazancourt was in response to a report that German troops were arriving there. The attack on the woods near Remonville was on the Bois de La Forche and the Bois de Barrocourt. A large number of twenty-pound bombs were dropped on the woods while machine gunners attacked enemy troops on the roads.

Several formations of Fokkers attacked both groups of the American bombers but were driven off. Today was almost spring like, but for a new bombing and the victory of both sides were out in force. There were aerial combats all about the front beginning in the early morning.

Lieut. Edward V. Rickenbacher was credited with one kill before breakfast. In a most spectacular combat over Doncourt, which lasted half an hour, four American fighters badly wounded an equal number of Germans.

Several Fokkers being driven off by the French fighters of Texas, single-handed, fought two Fokkers and shot down in flames over No Man's Land a German two-seater bound for the American lines on observation duty.

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, N. M., Oct. 23.—Phonograph records are being experienced along the Central American coast; steamers arriving here report Panama, Arica, Santa Rita, is inundated with German troops, and the situation with the interior has been reversed. The same conditions prevail at Chihuahua, Chihuahua, where much property has been destroyed.

Secretary Sherman has at last decided that he will abandon his system of private purchase of silver for coinage purposes and open the field to public competition. It is a course which he ought to have adopted long ago, and one which, if honestly carried out, and a fair chance given to small as well as large dealers, will save the government a considerable percentage on its purchases. Whether he intends to carry out the new program in the spirit as well as in the letter, remains to be seen.

Thurman is pronounced by many flat money advocates in the west as the coming man. The New Jersey people, however, are jubilant over Bayard's prospects.

Twenty Years Ago

"Oliver Twist" at the Barton opera house last night did not go off as smoothly as it might have done, and the fault was principally due to the obstinacy of Mr. McKee Rankin. It was after 8:50 o'clock when the curtain rose on the first act. The long and needless delay was the work of Mr. Rankin who positively refused to let the play go on because the door leading from the stage to the auditorium was locked and the pompous Mr. Rankin could not parade himself before the audience before going on with his scene. It is a rule at the Barton to keep the door locked so that playgoers who have no business on the stage can not go behind the scenes and interfere with the play. Not until Mr. Rankin had declared that the play would not proceed did Manager Barton learn of the trouble and it was not until a lawyer appeared on the scene and threatened to attach the company's baggage for damages that Mr. Rankin was brought to a realization of what he might expect if he carried out his resolve. Pretty little scene, wasn't it?—Steel Pen.

All contracts made by growers with the four Army Companies to secure a price of 4 cents for raisins were called off yesterday by the company. Yesterday was the day scheduled for the close of the time extension granted. The growers were even less enthusiastic about the business than they were before October 1st. The larger proportion of the growers allowed their contracts to become worthless and consequently there were only about 2000 tons signed up when the books closed yesterday.

WILSON COMMENTS WORK OF GREEKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A letter from President Wilson commending the efforts of the Relief Commission for Greece of Asia Minor, and "bespeaking for it the hearty and continued support of the Greeks and all lovers of Greece in America" was made public here tonight by the commission as a most timely appeal on behalf of the usually tragic situation in Eastern Macedonia among Greek sufferers from Bulgarian atrocities.

GEO. CREEL DENIES SENATOR'S CHARGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—George Creel, chairman of the committee on public information, today positively denied a charge written to Senator Taft yesterday of Washington, denying charges made by the senator last Monday that the committee had been making "consistent and continued efforts to create the impression that the German army was about to be crushed by the American army."

Mr. Creel said that only two of thousands of statements put out by the committee had dealt with the subject, one being an authorized denial from General Pershing of an article in a St. Louis newspaper crediting a sergeant of the American expeditionary forces with saying German soldiers fed children poisoned candy and gave them hand grenades to play with.

Referring to the senator's charge that the committee had denied that Sergeant A. B. Cole of East Liverpool, Ohio, had been crucified by the Germans, Mr. Creel said the committee "merely corrected the impression that Sergeant Cole was a member of the American expeditionary forces, stating explicitly that as the crucifixion took place in July, 1915, it was obviously the case that Sergeant Cole was serving with the Canadians."

ANDRASSY TO BE MAGYAR CHIEF

PARIS, Oct. 23. (Havas).—Measures are being taken to carry into effect the proclamation of Emperor Charles concerning independence of Hungary, says a Zurich dispatch to the Petit Parisien. It is reported that Count Julius Andrassy will be Hungarian foreign minister.

Count Andrassy is a former premier of Hungary and has figured prominently in efforts toward peace.

Miss Dyer Tells How Cuticura Healed Her Aunt's Face

"My aunt's face was affected with a rash which gave very great pain. It was covered with a breaking out of little pimples that spread over her entire face until big scales were all over it. It caused disfigurement, itching and burning, and her skin was very sore and red and much irritated by scratching. Some one had to sit with her night and day to keep her from scratching."

"This lasted about six weeks before Cuticura was used, and it took about three weeks to heal the trouble, using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment." (Signed) Miss Dorothy Mary Dyer, 3540 Admiral Way, Seattle, Wash., January 4, 1918.

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap and occasional touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soothe, soothe and heal. They are ideal for every toilet purpose.

AMERICA'S LABOR CHIEF IN LONDON

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is at present touring the Allied countries in the interest of American labor. Confering with representatives of various labor organizations, Gompers' mission will tend to cement friendship and elevating confidence in American trade ideals and methods. Gompers has been well received on his visits. He has been met and welcomed by royalty. All classes have greeted him as characteristically American, and acclaimed him for his greatness as a leader and a man. The king of Italy has extended him an invitation to dine at the palace on the occasion of his visit to that country. The photo shows Gompers conversing with American officers in London.

HEAVY PAYMENTS BY LOAN BUYERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Payments on the fourth Liberty loan are pouring into the treasury at the rate of $150,000,000 a day, and several hundred millions are expected tomorrow, the last day given banks to report loan subscriptions, with initial payments.

So great is the task before the banks that many probably will not be able to complete their reports in the allotted time, thus delaying the federal reserve banks in making up their totals, which will show the exact amount of the subscriptions to the loan. Efforts of the Liberty loan publicity bureau today to obtain approximate figures on subscriptions by cities were unavailing.

The first block of treasury certificates of indebtedness issued in advance of the fourth loan falls due tomorrow. It totals $339,000,000 and was issued June 25. Many banks will pay their Liberty loan installments tomorrow with these certificates.

CHICAGO TO BUILD AERO MAIL DEPOTS

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Chicago won the pivotal place in the trans-continental aerial mail service today, when the Association of Commerce promised $15,000 for erecting the necessary hangar at Grant Park.

Captain B. H. Lipsner, in charge of the service, said the action had been taken just in time as plans have been under consideration to accept the offer of facilities from St. Louis. This would have made the Missouri city the starting point for all western and southern air mail.

After the opening of the New York-Chicago service, Captain Lipsner announced there would be no further extension of the service until after the war, when all the airplanes now in use in France will be turned over to the post-office department.

"Then we will get bombing planes capable of carrying several tons," he said. "St. Louis then will be given service and it will gradually be extended to the Pacific coast and to all the other big cities in the country."

W. S. S. DRIVE FOR PLEDGES IS BEGUN

'Good Morning,' Greeting;
'Have You Redeemed
Your W. S. S. Pledge?'

GOOD MORNING!
Have
You Redeemed
Your
W. S. S. Pledge?

Wherever you go this morning these signs will meet you face to face—you and your conscience.

Their appearance marks the beginning of a campaign to urge every man, woman and child who signed W. S. S. pledges during the big June drive to walk up to their banks or to the W. S. S. headquarters at 204 Cory building and make their pledges good.

"Many pledges of the $2,360,000 pledged in Fresno county last summer have not yet been made good," declared Assistant County Director Harry C. Wilber yesterday, "and no one who signed a promissory note payable to Uncle Sam should allow his note to go to protest. Some of the July pledges have not been made. Hundreds upon hundreds of the August, September and October pledges have not been redeemed. We are getting ready for a big W. S. S. drive to collect on the pledges that patriotic Fresnoans signed last June. We waited until after the Liberty loan drive had carried Fresno over the top.

"Now we want to go over the top by making good our promises to pay. Never shall it be said that Fresno made promises to the nation that it failed to keep. We cannot now, because of the influenza epidemic, make the kind of a campaign we had planned, but what we can do is to redeem our pledges. When you see that sign today, stop up and pay up."

Cearley Is Named as Member of City Draft Board

C. T. CEARLEY.

Charles T. Cearley was named by Governor Stephens yesterday to succeed Wilroy M. Giffen, resigned, as a member of the City Exemption board. Notice of his appointment was received by Cearley late in the afternoon from Adjutant General Horner and he promptly accepted the post as a patriotic duty, although it will take a great part of his time from his private affairs.

Cearley, who is president of the Fresno Merchants' Association, was city manager of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign and to his efficiency as an organizer was largely due the tremendous success of the local drive. The other members of the local board are Alva E. Snow and Pete Droge. Ex-Mayor Snow yesterday was made chairman of the board to succeed Giffen, who had served as chairman from the beginning of the war.

GIVE PARTY FOR ROLAND REDDEN

A party in honor of Roland Redden, who leaves tonight for Ft. Huachuca to enter military training, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard at Fourth and El Monte streets last night. The red-white-and-blue color scheme was used in the decorations. Games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Those present were the Misses Rita Wheeler, Mildred De Crane, Virginia Baker, Ida May Christian, Mrs. A. Frenzel, Mrs. Howard and the Messrs. A. Frenzel, Tom Howard, Leland Frenzel, Roland Redden, Harold Fink, Henry Lingie.

EASTERN MAN DIES HERE

The body of a Mr. Bonnell of Hot Springs, Ark., who died in a local sanitarium yesterday, will be sent back to that city for burial. He had been visiting at sister, Mrs. S. Bain, of Coalinga, and brought here for hospital facilities when taken ill. Arrangements are in the hands of Lisle Bros.

PRINCE OF DENMARK ENTERTAINED HERE

The canteen department of the Fresno Chapter of the Red Cross is now active on a systematic basis, and for this week Mrs. W. A. Fisher and Mrs. W. A. Buckner have been assigned to duty at the Santa Fe station and Mrs. Carl E. Lindsay and Mrs. A. Bracker at the Southern Pacific.

On each regular train which has come through there have been soldiers and sailors in the United States uniform, but it remained for Mrs. Lindsay yesterday to have the climactic experience in interest. The southbound train made its customary pause for twenty minutes, and several uniformed men were offered fruit and cigarettes and other courtesies of the canteen. Mrs. Lindsay smiled a Japanese in uniform at the side of one of the rear coaches, and hurried down the length of the train with her basket of fruit.

The offer was received with smiles and the explanation that he was the son of Prince Axel of Denmark, who was traveling with his suite in his private car. Prince Axel, who is the son of King Christian, is the grand admiral of the Danish navy, and is in America on a diplomatic tour. His tour bringing him through Fresno after visits in the north Pacific coast cities. He appeared at his car door, and recognizing the Red Cross uniform, came out to express his approval of the splendid work which is being done by that organization. He accepted from the basket of fruit an apple and a pear, saying that he never refused California fruit, and then dropped into the fruit basket a shining five dollar gold piece.

A not less interesting experience was had by the workers at the Santa Fe yesterday afternoon when they had the pleasure of serving a wounded French soldier, who wore on his breast the Croix du Guerre.

RED CROSS WILL SELL 'FLU' MASKS

Fresno's Red Cross chapter has met its first call for local emergency work, and is answering that call with the manufacture of influenza masks.

All yesterday afternoon a group labored over the making of nearly a thousand, which were sold almost to the last one completed. Last night an S. O. S. was sent out to workers, and a group of a dozen continued making the masks for today's sales.

The Salvage Shop, which has been closed for the past day or two, is to be open today to sell masks, augmenting the sales at the Chamber of Commerce building. Mrs. W. E. Isaacs, shop manager, yesterday afternoon worked with a few assistants making and sold masks to the amount of $13.30, each mask selling for 15 cents. At her own home last evening she continued the manufacture of the articles, which will help supply the demand of today.

PALESTINE PURIFIED OR TURKISH STAIN

The Turk is gone from the holy places. Step by step the British advanced out of Egypt through the land of Idmon and the Philistine border, pressing the Turk northward until the whole tangled highland of Judea and the Plain of Sharon were cleared of the defilement of his presence. And now all Samaria and the Plain of Esdraelon have been liberated by the last great victory of General Allenby. There remain, however, a few scattered bands of Turk in the hills of Galilee, but they will soon have been hunted down. All the lands on this side of Jordan up to the boundaries of the Lebanon, where for two generations Turkey has held only nominal sway, will have been redeemed. And beyond the Jordan the remnants of the Turkish force are darting wildly about in Ughed and Azmon, seeking desperately an escape from between the British in the Hauran and their Arabic allies moving north through Moab. There is no way out for the Turks except over the deadly Arabian desert to the east. Whether they go out into the desert or return to be made prisoners is all one to the world. They are thrust out of Palestine, and that stricken land will know their misrule and greed and cruelty no more.—The New Republic.

To the Voters of the Third Judicial Township, Fresno County:

I hereby solicit your support at the general election, Nov. 5, 1918, for the office of Constable. If elected I promise you efficient service in the future as I have endeavored to render in the past.

Yours truly,

Geo. E. Machen,
Incumbent.

USE RESINOL FOR BAD SKIN TROUBLE

Considers Recovery Remarkable

Brinkley, N. Y., Aug. 14.—"For almost six years I suffered from a severe case of skin trouble which began with swelling and intense pain in my knee. Then my leg became sore and itched terribly and I tried many remedies, but gained no relief. I spent six months in the hospital, and the doctors failed to cure me. At last I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and obtained relief from the first application. My knee is now well, and I consider the cure remarkable, as my trouble was very serious. My wife, Mrs. Bruce Maud, 419 Hooper Street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes: 'All drug stores sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap.'"

THE KAISER NOW IN A NEW ROLE

Editor Republican:—Once upon a time—some three thousand years ago—there was a king. He was a born soldier, had a large army and possessed unlimited ambition mixed with a limited conscience. One day it got into his head that he must serve the God of heaven (whose uncrowned he considered himself) by destroying a neighboring nation on a certain day. An army of 210,000 was entrusted with the job. They did quick and clean work. Towns were burned to ashes. Trees were cut down. Men and women, even infants and sucklings, were slaughtered. No living thing was left, except some fine looking cattle which were spared for the royal farm and the prince of the land who was taken captive in order that he might adorn the conqueror's chariot in the triumphal procession into the capital. The magnificent spectacle was marred by one little episode. Suddenly there appeared an old man, who just walked to the foot of the king, and fixing his grave countenance and fiery eyes on the king, shouted: "Thou sinner! God hath rejected thee from being king." The king, confused in spirit and confounded in speech, muttered a few incoherent words of self-judgment, but the stern verdict redounded. "God hath rejected thee from being king." Seeing no other refuge, the king implored a few words of reconciliation. With trembling hands stretched toward the patriarch he said: "I have sinned; yet honor me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people." And this is the point of the story. The man professes sorrow for the tragedy, but because he feels the guilt of his conduct, but because his sin is made public. He begs to be saved, not from his filthy reputation, but from the penalty of public humiliation. He assumes the penitent garb in order to be spared the process of genuine repentance. "I have sinned; yet honor me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people."

This is a real story taken out of a very old book which still some people read. It is called the Bible. The name of the king is Saul; that of the prophet is David. Who ever imagined that this Biblical scene would be enacted afresh in the year of grace nineteen hundred and eighteen and in the very land called America? It happened just yesterday. Germany in suing for peace, her note wired to the White House reads exactly like the old story: "I have sinned; yet honor me now." Not one word of sorrow for her sin which has made the world of God's beautiful earth. No expression of chagrin for her four and a half years of interrupted outrage against mankind, womanhood, motherhood, childhood. No attempt to apologize for her original record which can not adequately be characterized except by borrowing the vocabulary of fiends and demons. None of these, but a willing appeal to America for such terms of peace as shall save the German government from humiliation. (The note reads: "It (the German government) trusts that the President of the United States will approve of no demand which would be irreconcilable with the honor of the German people.")

He begs to argue (this is the worst) that the German army and navy have done nothing out of the way. In plain language, the Kaiser, who has abandoned the hope of conquering the world, declares himself ready to quit fighting, and begs President Wilson to use his intercessory influence with the Allies to secure a settlement calculated to preserve Germany's honor. With repentance for the past, no change of heart in the present, and no promise of reformed conduct for the future, Germany now discourses in the language of assumed humility before the sure, her from a deserved humiliation. "I have sinned; yet honor me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people." Verily, Wilhelm the Hohenzollern is a modern, but more than modern edition of the son of Kish. Indeed, Kaiser the present is even worse than Kaiser the sinner. (REV.) M. G. PAPAZIAN.

OFFICIAL VERSION OF GERMANY'S LATEST REPLY TO AMERICA

Not Importantly Different From Earlier Report—Vague as to Proposal of Armistice

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The English translation of the German reply to President Wilson, prepared in Berlin and forwarded through the Swiss legation here, was made public tonight by the state department. It does not differ materially from the wireless version sent out from Germany and sent to clear up what were regarded as vague phrases in that part of the note, in which the armistice is discussed.

The official document was made public by the state department in this announcement:

The secretary of state makes public the following communication from the German government to the United States, dated October 22, 1918, from the German government, which has today been received from the Swiss foreign office. I beg to also enclose an English translation of the communication in question as transmitted to the Swiss foreign office by the German government with the request that it be forwarded to your excellency's government.

"Please accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration."

(Signed)
"F. Oederlin."
"Chargé d'affaires, a. i. of Switzerland."

"His Excellency."
"Robert Lansing, secretary of state, Washington."

(Enclosure.)

Text of Translation

Translation issued by the German government of its communication dated October 20, 1918, transmitted to the secretary of state by the chargé d'affaires, a. i. of Switzerland on October 22, 1918.

"In accepting the proposal for an evacuation of the occupied territories, the German government has stated from the assumption that the procedure of this evacuation and of the condition of the people in the German empire has not been endowed with an influence on the formation of the government. The constitution did not provide for a concurrence of the representation of the people in decision on peace and war. These conditions have just now undergone a fundamental change. The new government has been framed in complete accord with the wishes of the representation of the people, based on the equal, universal, secret, direct franchise. The leaders of the great parties of the Reichstag are members of the government. In future, no government can take or continue in office without possessing the confidence of the majority of the Reichstag. The responsibility of the chancellor of the empire to the representation of the people is being legally developed and safeguarded. The first act of the new government has been to lay before the Reichstag a bill to alter the constitution of the empire so that the consent of the representation of the people is required for decisions on war and peace. The permanence of the new system is, however, guaranteed not only by constitutional safeguards, but also by the unshakable determination of the German people, whose vast majority stands behind these reforms and demands their energetic continuance.

"The question of the president, with whom he and the government are dealing, is therefore answered in a clear and unequivocal manner by the statement that the offer of peace and an armistice has come from a government which, free from arbitrary and irresponsible influences, is supported by the approval of the overwhelming majority of the German people."

(Signed)
"Berlin, October 20, 1918."
"State Secretary of Foreign Affairs."

Pershing's Report

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Repulse of violent enemy counter-attacks with severe losses to the Germans on the Verdun front was reported by General Pershing in his communication for yesterday, received today at the war department. The statement follows:

"Headquarters American Expeditionary Force, October 22."

"On the Verdun front we have maintained and extended our gains of the preceding days. Violent counter-attacks on our new positions on Hill No. 237 and in the Bois des Hapies brought the enemy only severe losses. Lines remaining everywhere intact. Further east our troops have taken the Bois de Vorey, capturing seventy-five prisoners. Artillery fire has been more intense and aviation has been more active on both sides of the Meuse."

"In the Westwe in the course of a successful attack our troops captured twenty-six prisoners."

French Report

PARIS, Oct. 23.—Tonight's war office statement says:

"There was great artillery activity on the Oise front. Between the Oise and the Marne ground north of Cailly, Du-Temple and carried our lines to the outskirts of Chéris-les-Dames."

"Further east we captured a wood which was energetically defended in the northeast of Mesbreyourt-Richecourt. One hundred and fifty prisoners remained in our hands."

"There was stubborn fighting during the day on the Serre-Souche front. Our units succeeded in debouching between Froimont-Cabartille and Piermont and in maintaining themselves on the east bank opposite Brazicourt, despite strong counter-attacks."

"Southeast of the Alpine, lively fighting was carried on in the region of Vouziers. The German attacked Terny and our positions east of Vandy, but were repulsed with serious losses. Between Olley and Grand Pre, we captured the Moulins Beaupre, taking prisoners."

"In the communications, there is nothing to report regarding the army group in Flanders except progress by the French army on the right bank of the Lys. In the course of which Waereghen was occupied and 200 prisoners taken."

PAYNE OUSTED AS RECEIVER

Judge Dooling Takes Action to Investigate His Conduct

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Howard M. Payne formally was removed as receiver of impounded moneys involved in the federal government's Kern county oil lands litigation late today by Judge Maurice T. Dooling of the federal district court. The court appointed A. D. Sissons to audit Payne's accounts both as receiver and personally. The investigation will include any profits Payne may have made.

Judge Dooling declared he will go to Fresno shortly to enter a similar order in cases pending in the jurisdiction of the court.

Payne, who is said to be suffering from Spanish influenza, had not been in court since the hearing was begun last Monday. His attorney, Frank Freeman, refused to enter any defense.

At the close of the first day's hearing of the case, Judge Dooling suspended Payne as receiver. As such he was custodian for about $9,000,000 of funds of various oil companies whose right to own and operate many wells in Kern county suits brought by the government seek to set aside.

Payne is alleged to have amassed a fortune during the time he was receiver by unethical practice. It is charged he and assistants borrowed money from banks in which Payne had deposited oil company funds and made fortunate investments with the borrowed money.

Before Judge Dooling entered his order removing Payne as receiver, A. F. Well, representing the General Petroleum company, asserted there would in all probability be "other proceedings" shortly.

John W. Preston, representing Attorney-General Gregory, declared: "I am prepared to say that the investigation, from some standpoint, has only begun. There are many leads which should be followed."

Well demanded to know why, if the government had been familiar with Payne's methods months ago, nothing was done until recently. He asserted that in the first Liberty loan Payne would consent to an investment of only 10 per cent of the moneys entrusted to him, and that up to the time of the expense he had invested only 50 per cent of impounded moneys in Liberty loans.

Judge Dooling said he would announce the appointment of a receiver to succeed Payne within thirty-six hours.

These People Know Me Best
Ask Them About Me

The above vote, I think, exonerates me from anything detrimental that has been said about me during this election campaign.

If you are in doubt about my character or ability, write to anyone in Sanger—business men, workingmen, professional men, and the four ministers. They will tell you the truth.

Here is what my home community did for me at the primaries.

Out of 547 votes cast in Sanger I got 468, my two opponents got 79 between them.

I have lived in Sanger for the last ten years, and the people there know me like a book. I have been associated with them in business and pleasure; I have worked with them in making the community a better place in which to live. They know me from start to finish.

HAIG ADVANCES OVER THREE MILES

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Over the entire front held by the British, further gains have been made by Field Marshal Haig's men from the region south of Le Cateau to the Scheldt river, according to tonight's British official communication. At some places enemy positions to a depth of more than three miles were penetrated, numerous villages were taken, and several thousand prisoners and many guns were captured. The communication follows:

"The attack this morning was delivered by Anglo-Scottish troops of the Third and Fourth Armies between the Sambre canal and the river Scheldt, south of Valenciennes."

"An advance was made over country that was difficult—over many streams and through villages and woods which were defended with much determination."

"Enemy Using Gas." "In the period of assembly and the early stages of the battle hostile artillery displayed great activity with high explosives and gas shells."

"We have fought our way forward in spite of obstinate resistance, especially by the enemy's artillery and machine guns."

"Advancing with great steadiness some hours before dawn, our infantry penetrated the enemy's defense along the whole of the front and at an early hour had captured the important village of Pommereul Forest and Homeric."

"On the extreme right there was strong resistance at the fortified farm of Gurbremonet and the railway nearby, but at both places the enemy's defense was quickly overcome."

"Left of the center, the village of Beaurain, which was held by the enemy with great tenacity, was stormed by the English with the assistance of tanks."

"On the left other English troops crossed the Harpies river at an early stage of the advance and captured Vertaln."

"Depth of Three Miles." "During the morning we pressed on over the whole front, carrying the enemy's positions to a depth of over three miles, driving him from many strongly defended villages, farms, woods and other localities, organized for resistance."

"The English twenty-fifth division had been fighting in the Bois Leveque, but progressed through the wood. Last night's troops, advancing to a depth of three and a half miles, captured House (Houses?)."

"The Anglo-Scottish troops secured crossings of the Harpies at the Verdegies wood and captured the Vendegies village. English and New Zealanders operating on their left reached the outskirts of Neuville and established themselves on the high ground northwest of the village."

"Further north, the village of Escaumont was captured."

"In these highly successful operations, over a thousand prisoners and many guns were captured by our troops, whose advance is continuing on the whole of the front."

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough

Surprising results from this famous old home-made syrup. Easily prepared and costs little.

CHERRY BLOSSOM SYRUP

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with cough and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this safe holdoff enough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

DR. CHARLES T. WHEELER TELLS OF FRANCE AND UNITED WAR HUTS

Dr. Charles T. Wheeler of Chicago, who is touring the western states under the United War Work campaign committee, is in Fresno for a few days and is scheduled to speak at many open-air points in Fresno and vicinity.

The work of the seven organizations, Dr. Wheeler said yesterday at the Fresno hotel, "begins with the boy at home, goes with him to the train, staying during the first homesickness, on the train provides the future soldier with paper, magazines and refreshments, follows him to training camp, and through the huts inside and outside of camp provides wholesome amusement, and work to eliminate the lead with a substitution of food."

The "seven" of this united force are the Y. M. C. A., the Salvation Army, the Y. W. C. A., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, National Catholic War Council and the American Library Association. The program of these organizations means the closing of mental rooms and the opening of the finest homes of the city in way of hospitality for soldiers at the week-end, providing of a place where mothers, wives and sweethearts may meet their soldiers; the creation of hotels, adjoining camps, where mothers and wives may stay for several days on their last visit with the boy before he leaves for "somewhere." The "Seven" follow him to the port of embarkation where the soldier learns of the backing he will have as he goes forth on his great adventure, or in a double sense as he launches out into the deep.

Describes Convoy System.

In describing the trip across, Dr. Wheeler said: "On the transport the trip across is very spectacular these days; the convoy is preceded by an immense oblique ship, observers scanning the waters for submarines; this is followed by a cruiser; while back of it come the transports three abreast. On either side, submarine chasers capable of making great speed dart back and forth, sometimes leaving the convoy many miles away, as they search the waters. Then back of it all comes the 'mystery ship,' a boat of innocent enough appearance, but bristling with guns, and with sides that fall away. All vessels are camouflaged, some like harbor poles, others like zebras, some so painted as to appear out in two.

"To see our soldiers on the decks of the boats," he said, "is to think of an enormous bee hive with brown bees swarming over it."

Old and New in France.

In comparing the old and the new world, Dr. Wheeler said, "Passing up a river of France, you look upon a typical French landscape, there are no fences; and the farms are very small, two or three acres of wheat, two of oats, of rye, timothy, clover; small towns with little stone houses and their red-tiled roofs; women working in the fields, driving not horses, but oxen, hitched to great two-wheeled carts. That is an old world scene. Suddenly there comes into view enormous new storage plants, mountains of supplies, covered with canvas; a great railroad terminal station, scores of engines, hundreds of cars, many transport traveling great distances along the shore, on boats, on the dock, everywhere are boys in khaki, while overhead floats old glory, and the band aboard the boat strikes up with the Star Spangled Banner. This is America in France. One is looking upon the greatest railroad dock terminal system in all the world, and it was built in four and a half months by American engineers. When the engineers were asked to build great camps in this country they said it cannot be done. They now have on the walls of the office of the engineers at Washington the motto, 'It cannot be done, but here it is.'"

Greeted With Air Raid
"When we first arrived in Paris," Dr. Wheeler continued, "in view perhaps of our arrival, we were greeted with an air raid every night. Through the listening posts and observers, they learn that the foe planes are coming an hour before they arrive. The red automobiles of the fire department rush up and down the streets, usually around midnight, sounding the horn. French people go to their abodes. Everywhere along the streets of Paris one sees the word 'Abri,' 50-100" which signifies that a cellar is there, which will accommodate from fifty to a hundred persons. The Yanks make for the gardens instead of the cellars to see what's going on. I went several nights to the Garden of Tuilleries, and this is what can be seen: a large number of cigar shaped balloons sent at once into the sky going up from many trees in the garden and along the Champs-Élysées while hundreds of searchlights play back and forth across the sky. When one sights the foe plane, it holds steady and the anti-aircraft guns seek to reach the machine with sharp shells. This barrage has been so perfected that when a plane does fly over Paris it must go so high that the operator can have no knowledge of range. Even as late as the middle of August the long range gun was dropping shells somewhere in Paris every 15 minutes, sometimes doing great damage, more often very little. One shell took the head off the statue of St. Luke in the Madeleine church, another killed several hundred people in the St. Germain church."

Spirit of Our Boys
The spirit of "our boys" he says is the spirit of the great adventure. They are full of life and always smiling. Dr. Wheeler was with the boys of the first division of the English sector back of Montdidier when they took Cantigny, and got as they said "the number of

TEXAS DRY LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 22.—The court of criminal appeals in a majority opinion held the state-wide prohibition law unconstitutional. The opinion is by Judge Morrow, who holds that this law is in conflict with the local option feature of the constitution. Judge Prendergast dissented in the opinion. The written opinion declares that the state-wide prohibition law is in conflict with the section of the local option law which says in part:

"The local option prohibition law provides that it shall continue in force until such time as qualified voters therein may, at a legal election held for the purpose by a majority vote, decide otherwise. The law in question puts no limit on the time it shall continue in force and affords the voters in the locality no option to discontinue it. In these respects the people of the locality are deprived of the rights, which, according to the construction of the constitution, the legislature has no right or power to deprive them."

Attorney General Looney stated today that a motion for rehearing in the state-wide prohibition cases would be filed.

Comptroller Terrell stated that he would issue no licenses for the selling of intoxicating liquors until the motion for rehearing had been disposed of.

"To realize the need that exists for hot work," Dr. Wheeler said, "you must realize that for a distance of 12 to 40 miles in breadth and 450 miles in length the thousands of stone villages are deserted. A division of 25,000 men is billeted in from 35 to 65 towns; there will be 20 boys in the house, 40 in the barn, 14 in the hen house, 20 in the stalls. There is no place of warmth or comfort apart from the place provided by our war workers. The hut is home, store, club, school, theater, and church all in one."

"If you could see the boys in that old deserted stone town, you would say 'I would mortgage my business to give them a comfortable place to go.' If you were to see them lying in mud using their steel helmets as little islands on which to keep their head out of mud while they slept, you would make any sacrifice to give them a place of warmth."

The Salvation Army Lasses when without supplies, he said, began making doughnuts, and they have never been able to keep up with the demand.

My Policies

The Dry Question

There is one question before the public today that is vitally important. That is the "dry" question, and on that matter I am wholeheartedly dry, believing that a dry community is not only a happier place but a more prosperous one in which to live—and that a "dry" man is not only a better man, but a more efficient one.

Advertising for Bids on Public Work

I believe that the matter of bids for public work, such as concrete work, etc., contracts for which are awarded by the Supervisors, should be fully advertised, and given to the lowest responsible bidder.

Good Roads

Good roads are necessary to the welfare and progress and to the safety of the community. If elected, I will do all in my power to see that roads, bridges, crossings, etc., are given the best attention, with the least expense to the community.

When a man makes application for a position, he makes no promises as to what he will do, to anyone save his possible employers. You are my possible employers and I make my pledges to you alone.

I am not under obligations to anyone, and all my campaign expenses will be paid out of my own pocket. Because I have been successful in the conduct of my own affairs, and am a practical business man, I believe that I am qualified to fulfill the duties of the Supervisor's office.

My Qualifications

I have lived in Fresno County for 27 years, and in that time I have come to know the needs of the community very well. I have served on various public boards—such as the school boards, the Farm Bureau, as Director of the Danish Creamery Association.

I have served on Loan Drives, on Red Cross drives. I have been a regular attendant at the meetings of all the boards on which I served. I mention these points because I believe that a Supervisor should be free to attend to his duties at whatever time his duties call, and I am not hampered in any way by personal affairs.

JUDGE RHODES, 97, DIES AT SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, Oct. 23.—Augustus L. Rhodes, 97 years old, and a California supreme court judge from 1863 to 1870, died here late today of infirmities due to his advanced years. He was a superior judge in this county for many years after his retirement from the supreme court.

Judge Rhodes was the oldest college graduate in the United States, having graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1841.

Celebrations of his birthday, May 25, have been events in central California legal circles for several years.

MILITANTS AGAIN BUSY AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Two militants of the National Woman's Party were arrested today when they attempted to picket the capitol in protest against the defeat of the suffrage amendment. They were detained for an hour and then released. Later they again attempted to carry banners up the steps on the Senate wing of the capitol, when the banners were taken from them by the police.

New banners arrived late in the day and the pickets again took up their station. Immediately three of the banner bearers were arrested by the police and detained for a short time in the guard room of the capitol.

U. S. LAWMAKERS NEEDED AT HOME

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Secretary Baker has decided that members of Congress can best serve their country by remaining in office, and, after a conference with President Wilson, asserted that no more law makers would be allowed to join the army, according to a statement tonight by Representative Delaney of New York.

chase guns, moving from place to place, particularly at night, with the object of concealing the positions of their heavier guns. The German heavy artillery shelled Sommerance and other towns in that region and as far as the Meuse drenched the woods within the American lines with gas at intervals.

An early morning mist and a smoke-screen aided the Americans, who advanced for a distance of about two-thirds of a mile at certain points and gained positions of advantage, including positions on either side of the Grand Trunk. During the day the Americans took 200 prisoners and others are now coming in.

The Germans are using for the most part machine guns and light artillery, with plenty of gas. The enemy machine gun nests were pounded all day by the American artillery and by bombing machines, but the Germans apparently had dug in against the shells.

ON WATCHOUT FOR BOCHE BIRDMEN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Oct. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Scorching the skies at night for German aviators have become the newest trick for the American flyers, who are already alluding to themselves as "night air eyes." When the enemy bombing planes came in groups, one after the other on Monday night, the American night flyers went out in force to hunt for them. Among the Americans was Major Harold Hartney, of Pasadena, Cal., who got nearer to the Germans than any other of our flyers.

"I was so close to one boche," Major Hartney said, "I could see his tracer bullets at intervals shot through the air like lightning. As he and I followed them here and there, but I could not see the boche. Then I maneuvered and tried to get the German between myself and the moon, but I never could see him."

Those night patrols are continuing, even when the weather is cloudy, the American flyers going out in relays until dawn.

NAVAL OFFICER DIES OF GRIPPE

A PACIFIC PORT, Oct. 23.—Lieutenant Commander J. J. Hadwen, senior surgeon of a British war vessel, died here today of the grippe. He had been working for men suffering from influenza on the vessel. The British vessel arrived here yesterday with more than 200 of its crew ill. Lieutenant Commander Hadwen had worked day and night to bring back the men to health, with such success that none of them died. The overwork told on him so that he contracted pneumonia and died soon after being taken to a hospital.

An American admiral and his staff will join with the officers of the British craft in the funeral services tomorrow. A full company of American bluejackets also will be in the procession.

MAY QUARANTINE TRAINS FOR "FLU"

RENO, Nev., Oct. 23.—Under a proclamation issued today by Governor Boyle the state of Nevada has been placed under quarantine against Spanish influenza. The state board of health is placed in charge with the state police to enforce its regulations. All passenger trains entering the state will be inspected at the boundaries and passengers intending to alight in Nevada will be examined carefully. If found infected with influenza they will be quarantined at once. If permitted to go to their destination they will be under observation until the period of possible incubation has passed, liable to internment should the disease develop. Nevada has been almost free from the disease except in isolated communities.

BRITISH PRISONERS OUT OF BULGARIA

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The first party of 1000 British prisoners taken by the Bulgarians and liberated under the peace agreement passed through Sofia yesterday en route to Salonika according to dispatches to the Daily Mail from the Bulgarian capital. They reported that because of ill treatment at the hands of the Bulgars, 2000 of the 5000 Serbians in Bulgarian prison camps have died.

PLANNING TO FIX CLOTHING PRICES

Vote No On Amendment Number 21

Keep the riff-raff and incompetent dentists out of California, by voting NO on Amendment 21.

You will be called upon to vote on this amendment at the election November 5th. You are being urged to vote NO and to urge your friends to vote NO, for if this amendment ever became a law, it would be disastrous for the public health.

This amendment is not a popular agitation. It was conceived and is being promoted by a single individual for his personal enrichment. It is designed so as to admit into California all outside dentists without requiring them to pass an examination.

This means that dentists who have failed in other parts of the country can come to California and do any kind of dental work, regardless of the consequences to the public.

"The Public Health Must Be Protected"

SILAS EVANS, PRES. OCCIDENTAL COLLEGE.

Silas Evans, President of the Occidental College, as well as the heads of every University and College in California are opposing this amendment.

Do likewise. Be guided by these men who have raised the high standard of dentistry that exists now.

Help to protect the public health. The dental standards of the State are none too high now and it has taken years to acquire them. Don't make it necessary to begin all over again, for while this work would be going on, the State would be flooded with disreputable dentists who would raise havoc with the public health.

Help to keep the State free from these quacks, so that the dentists who are now in the war will be able to come back and start their practice again.

GAUZE MASKS LEND WARLIKE TOUCH TO DRILLS

Drafted Men March Spite of Spanish "Flu," but Take Precautions

Officers' School Arouses Enthusiasm; Repeat Classes Tonight

A touch of war was added to the drill of the drafted volunteers last night, many of them appearing in masks, to avoid possible infection by the Spanish influenza. It was the night for advanced training, and sanitary measures are important in war.

The officers' school last night proved the most interesting drill since the work of training drafted men began three weeks ago. Ten squads of men assembled and several sets of corporals took successive charge of them after brief company drill on 11 street.

The tremendous importance of the corporal in the scheme of military discipline was impressed by Captain S. L. Galtner, who then taught each man to take the part of the corporal or to report the squads present in the proper manner. The corporals were then given charge of their squads and instructed to give them brief snappy drills. A second set of corporals later drilled the men. Several corporals assisted the captain to supervise the work of the corporals. Similar training will continue tonight, as it is planned to give every man an opportunity to prepare for a place as non-commissioned officer in the U. S. Army training camps.

The roster of training men is nearing completion. Particular sent in for more cards last night.

Captain Galtner announced that Sunday morning's drill will include accounting in regular army style, and that a detachment will be sent ahead to surprise the column. The march will not be excessive, and a "mulligan

Pneumonia Hits 32 in Crawford Aerial Company

A letter from Jay Whitman, a corporal of the Crawford of the U. S. aerial service, who is ill with pneumonia at Newport News, Va., was received by Dr. J. M. Crawford yesterday. He expresses confidence Dick will pull through all right. After the company had been placed on board ship and marched off again on account of illness, thirty-two of the men were stricken with pneumonia. Of these seven died.

A curious coincidence was the arrival of a letter yesterday at the same time of the army "Safely Overseas" cards arrived from New York. The cards were mailed in New York the day the transport sailed, and are released as soon as word of the safe arrival of the transport is received. The ship arrived, but the company is still in quarantine, and the men still waiting for their chance to go to France.

DRAFT BOYS TO ASSEMBLE IN PARK

"Flu" Causes Abandonment of Plans to Entertain 68 Going Tonight

To protect from the "flu" the sixty-eight soldiers who go away from here tonight, roll call of the city draft men will be held at the band stand in Courthouse park at 10 o'clock this morning, according to announcement made yesterday by Thomas E. McKnight, secretary of the city exemption board.

"Notices have been sent out," declared McKnight yesterday, "ordering the draft men to report at the Municipal Auditorium. The influenza epidemic has caused this order to be changed. There will be a mule stationed at the Auditorium entrance instructing all draft men to report at the band stand."

Similar action was taken by Secretary Roy Marshall of the two county boards, who has set 2 p. m. as the hour of the first roll call. As a result of the influenza epidemic, there will be no farewell dance in honor of the boys who will leave tonight for Fort Rucker, and it is now to be held there farewell is not wanted. The boys will be escorted to the 11:55 p. m. train by the Musicians' Union band, but there will be no further ceremonies.

FEDERAL COURT TO CONVENE NOV. 11

The full term of the Federal court will convene in Fresno, Monday, November 11, and numerous espionage and other cases will come up for a hearing, according to George Hudson, special agent of the department of justice. Judge Trip of Los Angeles will preside, and the grand jury will be in session.

Cases scheduled are as follows: Paul Fischer of Mukersfield, charged with violating section 3, amended espionage act, by inciting negroes to insurrection against the United States government in favor of Germany. J. L. Warriner, espionage and sedition utterances. James Franklin Melton, arrested at Tulare, and Otto Lindner, at Lemon Cove, for sedition utterances. Frank Buckner of Bakersfield and W. W. Ward, for violating the espionage act.

D. E. Bassett, charged with violating section 2133, revised United States statutes, by taking liquor onto the Tule River Indian reservation. "Comrade de Anselmo" charged with violating the internal revenue act by manufacturing and operating a "still" without a permit.

Otto Mueller, violating the espionage act. Patrick Doyle, confessed I. W. W. freemason, for burning hay and property of J. W. Weir, near Lemoore, August 6, 1918.

NO FARM BUREAU MEETING TODAY

The Fresno County Farm Bureau office was called by farmers yesterday planning to attend the annual picnic and farmers' contest at Fresno Park. The meeting was planned for today, but has been postponed until October 31, or a later date if the grip situation does not clear up.

All bureau center meetings also have been postponed.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. SMITH TODAY

TAKE THE DRUDGERY OUT OF HOUSEKEEPING WITH THESE LABOR-SAVING DEVICES

—When the servant leaves, don't get discouraged. Doing one's own housework isn't the hardship it was a few years ago. During these critical war times, it is good patriotism to let the servants go into more vital work and do the work about home as one's own part in helping to win the war.

—Nowadays ELECTRICITY will wash the dishes as well as the clothes—it will make the ironing easy; it will run the Vacuum Cleaner and save both sweeping and dusting.

And when the dishes are washed, the washing and ironing done, and the sweeping and dusting are out of the way, the housekeeper's worries are over.

To take most of the work and worry out of cooking, let us show you all the things that can be done so splendidly, with so little work and fuel, by the FIRELESS COOKER.

Then see the scores of other utensils and devices that just tease one to do the things, because it is such fun to work with them.

When the Laundress Wants $3 a Day—

An Electric Washing Machine
Will Do Your Washing in 1 Hour
With 2 Cents Worth of Electricity

—You simply put in the clothes and PRESS THE BUTTON!

—The machine does the rest. Saves the wear of the rubbing on the washboard—does the work better and in less time—washes everything, from blankets to laces, without wear or tear.

—Come and let us show you all about it.

A Fireless Cooker
Saves Fuel and Saves the Food!

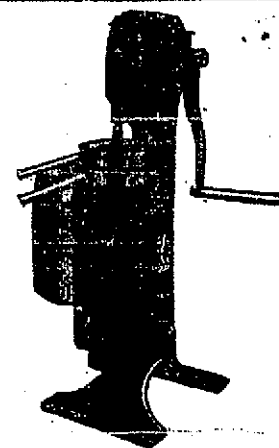

—You simply start the things on the stove, while heating the stoves for the "Fireless"; then put them in the "Fireless," and go and do what you please for the rest of the morning, or afternoon. Everything will be perfectly done ALWAYS—never overdone or burnt—never get dried up or cold when waiting, if "he" comes home an hour late.

—And the saving in coal or gas is very great.

—Come and see the wonderful things the "Fireless" does.

TWO GOOD SEPARATORS

Sharples and Simplex

The economy of a good separator is well understood. Every dairyman knows the saving and the value of his skimmed milk for hog feed.

Use Aluminum Cooking Utensils and Don't Burn Things Any More

—Don't waste food and your own hard work by burning things in old-fashioned vessels. Nothing can burn in an Aluminum Utensil, unless you are absolutely careless—and let it burn dry.

—They save work and worry, as well as loss—and they always look so fine and clean.

—These are some of the things you want—

$2.00 aluminum percolators $1.49
$1.50 four-quart saucepans $1.10
$1.75 double rice boilers $1.35
$2.75 six-quart aluminum tea kettles $1.98
$1.00 pudding pans 65c

Every hunter should carry a pocket compass. We have the practical kinds at $3.50.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART; IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks all classes, regardless of age, sex or conditions. A majority of the ill-afflicted people today can be traced back to the kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters; the purifiers of your blood. If the purifiers are clogged, the blood is not purified through the kidneys, disease of one form or another will claim you as a victim.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, depression, headache, stomach trouble, difficulty when urinating, pain in lower back, lower abdomen, redness of gravel, rheumatism, stiffness and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL, a soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow, do to your kidneys today and in less than a week you will feel better and your returning will be the day you are free of kidney trouble. After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. These capsules are money refunded if they do not help you.

Electric Headlight Heaters Furnish Clean Odorless Heat

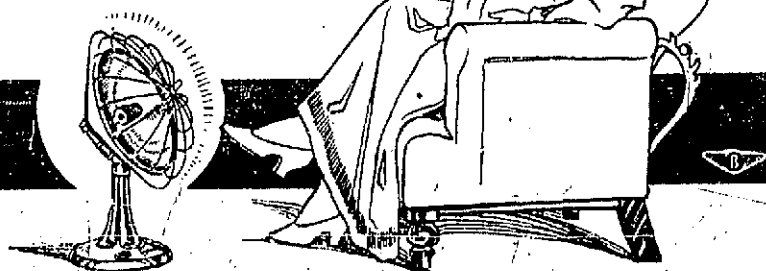

—Install Them In Your Home and Your Heating Troubles Will Vanish

Heating by electricity is the ideal way to solve your heating problems. These Electric Headlight Heaters give such a steady, clean, odorless heat that they are particularly suitable for nurseries, bedrooms, etc.

They may be attached to any light socket, and instantly begin to give a pleasant, uniform heat. They are always ready for instant use, and there is no annoyance from carrying ashes and fuel.

Let us demonstrate the merits of these convenient and attractive bedrooms, etc.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELP

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with Canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling. After its use, you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of Canthrox, which you can get from any good drugstore, dissolve it in a cup of hot water; this makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.

HOPE FOR COMING OF AMERICAN ARMY

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A cable message asserting that the Social Democrats of Russia would welcome the coming of "Republican troops of the United States" into Russia has been received by the Social Democratic League of America. It was announced here today by William English Walling, secretary of the American organization.

The message coming from "all of the best known Socialists of Russia outside of Bolshevik circles," Walling said, was signed by Peter Masloff, who, an international Socialist, says in the cable message that he had been elected chairman of a convention representative of democracy in Russia.

Regarding the message, Walling declared that "Masloff speaks not only for the Social Democrats, but also for a congress of the democratic will in Siberia as well as the trans-Siberian region of Russia."

UNDER SENTENCE OF DEATH; DIES

SANTA ANA, Cal., Oct. 23.—Edward Keyes, sentenced to be hanged at San Quentin prison on December 3 for the murder of Leonard Harwick, died here today from influenza complicated with pneumonia.

Harwick was an 11-year-old newsboy. Keyes maltreated and then decapitated the boy. He was sentenced to be hanged several months ago, but was granted a stay and recently re-sentenced.

RUSSIANS WORK AS SLAVES IN BELGIUM

BRUGES, Tuesday, Oct. 23.—A fresh and striking instance of the inhumanity of the German authorities has been discovered by Belgian soldiers in liberated territory. They found a large number of Russian soldiers, who were captured three years ago, at work with German labor companies. The Russians have been treated with the utmost brutality and forced to labor behind the firing line. They were utterly ignorant of the Russian revolution, the death of Emperor Nicholas or the Brest-Litovsk treaty of peace.

ATTENTION, TRACTOR BUYERS

Material to Factories reduced 25% by the Government, in other words there will be only 75% of the quantity of tractors put out in 1919 as was manufactured during 1918. Shortage, yes, are you getting yours?

Do you remember last year, the delay, when you needed work done, before the tractor arrived, owing to unfavorable weather conditions in the East, snow bound traffic?

Your work requires economy, you need an International Tractor, to get it forward faster, and at the lowest cost. Your boy or girl can do a day's work, the same as 8 horses by using the International Tractor, and you are getting results.

I call your ATTENTION now to place your order at once, as it is my intention to close out the few tractors I have on hand between now and the 15th of November and not have a tractor unsold by the end of November 1918.

The Factory advises that it will be after the first of the New Year before they will be able to fill orders, and then on the basis as stated above.

ORCHARDISTS SELL CROPS OF OLIVES

SPRINGVILLE, Oct. 23.—W. E. Spratt and Frank Sumner have sold their entire olive crop to a contractor who was here last week securing the olive crop throughout the foothills is very satisfactory this season.

Oranges and lemons in the foothills are beginning to turn color. A lighter crop is reported than last year and the size is fair. This has been a trying season for citrus fruits, and orchardists in this district all have light crops. W. C. Talbot has a poorer yield than usual, but very good for this season.

Coyotes are numerous this season, and several people have lost large numbers of chickens, turkeys and other fowls.

W. E. Spratt attended the meeting held in Lindsay last week by the fruit men to determine a possible use for cull oranges. Several in this district will experiment with orange marmalade.

Mr. Looney of Lindsay was a business visitor here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Looney have just made the trip from Texas to California in their automobile. Mrs. Looney is here for the benefit of her health.

A total of $450 has been subscribed to the fourth Liberty loan by employees of the Mount Whitney Power and Electric Company at power house No. 1.

P. E. Olds is employed by W. C. Talbot this week.

George Cole has gone to the oil fields to secure employment.

Clarence Williams has accepted a position in San Luis Obispo.

Black Walnuts, English walnuts and pecans are being gathered, but a very light crop was grown this year.

Mr. Blair of Poplar called on his customers this morning, bringing his usual supply of fresh beef.

Owing to a shortage of help at the Mount Whitney power house, W. E. Front and one of the assistants are doing all the electrical work, which necessitates long shifts. One of the former employees, Mr. Maxwell, is now with the engineering forces.

OLEANDER SCHOOL CLOSING

OLEANDER, Oct. 23.—The grammar school has been closed until the Spanish influenza epidemic is over.

The Red Cross meeting has been postponed on account of the Spanish grip.

Miss Cecelia Bonnickson, one of the school teachers, was taken sick yesterday at school. Calder, who has been hauling grapes for the Foley packing

PATTERSON BOY IS BADLY HURT

PATTERSON, Oct. 23.—Albert Ede, a lad whose parents live in the colony, while riding a horse in town Saturday, was thrown and seriously hurt. A bad cut was made on the back of his head and he was unconscious when carried into the hotel for medical help. He was taken to his home and on Monday had only partially regained consciousness.

Mrs. Vivian Plante and Miss Belle Wilton, grammar school teachers, are each spending the week out of town. Miss Plante with her parents at Chowchilla, and Miss Wilton visiting friends and relatives at Sanger and Lemoore.

Rev. R. M. Clark has just returned from a visit to the University at San Anselmo and friends at that place.

The families of Edward Jones and James McQueen, of Turlock, visited the family of T. Wash here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Redman and Mrs. Dorr visited Mr. Redman's relatives at Sanger Sunday.

The supplies for the Red Cross work have come and ladies are requested to assist in making the twenty-five pairs of pajamas and the twenty-five operating gowns which must be finished by November 5. The meeting for Wednesday is called off.

Prof. Steer, of Oakland, visited the family of Mr. Heinz and Mr. E. Woodbridge here Sunday and Mrs. E. Woodbridge returned to Oakland with him for a visit with her daughter here.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Berlin motored to Sacramento Sunday and returned Monday.

L. H. Dunnaphant, of Davis, is here for a few days on political business.

Mrs. Agnes Irons at the Wells hotel has taken eight new men to board, who have just arrived from San Francisco as steam fitters for the Mineral Products Co.

Mrs. F. E. Vaughn, of Springfield, Ill., who is secretary of the Townsend branch of Red Cross work and has been visiting for the past week here with her nephew, Geo. Matthews, and family, left for home Monday. She is very favorably impressed with Patterson and California.

W. S. Lohow has enlisted and gone to San Francisco. Mrs. Lohow is here yet to sell their household furniture. They have rented their home.

Phil Stadler, of the colony, has rented the Ed McNaughton cottage on Fifth street, and will move his family into it soon.

house here, had a narrow escape yesterday in crossing the railroad. A train was backing up and hit his truck in the rear. The truck, which was a new one, was badly wrecked. Calder saved himself by jumping.

Carrie Pilegard is reported to be sick with the Spanish grip.

Edith Smith is on the sick list.

FORMER REEDLEY RESIDENT IS DEAD

REEDLEY, Oct. 23.—Word has been received here that Roy Cox had died in the state of Washington from influenza. His father was called to his bedside several days ago and friends received the message that he died this morning. He had been manager of the Earl Fruit company here for the past several years, and on account of ill health was given a leave of absence for a year. He was prominent in business circles, and was a director of the Reedley Chamber of Commerce, also prominent in lodges, being a past master in the Masonic lodge, also a member of the Eastern Star and Knights of Pythias. The body will be brought to Reedley and funeral services will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge. He leaves a wife and small son Roy Cox, Jr. His parents and one brother reside in Reedley. The date for the funeral have not yet been decided upon.

REQUEST ALL TO PROVIDE MASKS

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 23.—The Red Cross has asked the city council to hold a special session tomorrow morning and request all people who go about in public, all business establishments, and all who come in contact with others in any way to wear face masks. The Red Cross declares this to be the patriotic duty of every American citizen.

While the city health officer, Dr. P. J. Conner, reports thirty-six new cases of the sickness, other physicians in the city claim the number to be much larger, and that there are a number of unreported cases.

Many people have already donned the face masks. One of the large business establishments of the city had all its employees masked today. The Red Cross is very busy making the masks as rapidly as possible to supply the demand.

So far as possible, everything is closed, outdoor meeting only being permitted.

USE SCHOOL FOR HOSPITAL

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 23.—A request came from Fellows today to L. E. Chenoweth, county superintendent of schools, asking permission to change the domestic science building there as a hospital for influenza patients. There was no other place where the patients could be cared, for, and the school building seemed the solution of the problem. Mr. Chenoweth gave his consent, but said that whatever was done should be by the advice of a physician.

HOT SPRINGS IS HIT BY FROSTS

HOT SPRINGS, Oct. 23.—Jack Frost made his first appearance in this section last week, but the weather continues mild and clear, while the nights are a little chilly.

S. Mitchell, Louis Larsen, Milt Engle and Mrs. Nettie Howard spent a few days here at the springs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. F. E. Corwin left for Sacramento last Sunday morning, where they will spend a few days, then going to San Francisco. They will return to the springs Friday or Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Dow, Mrs. George Grant, Mrs. John Payne and Miss Moore, who spent a week here at the springs, left for their homes last Friday morning.

Miss Harriett A. Corwin, who is attending normal in Fresno, returned home last Friday evening and will remain until the epidemic of "flu" which is spreading the normal to chase has subsided. Her cousin, Miss Baldwin, who is also attending normal there, accompanied her home and will be her house guest until the normal re-opens.

The ground is being cleared where the new plunge is to be built, and if getting material does not interfere the plunge will be finished early the coming spring.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Martin of Fresno arrived at the springs last Sunday noon, the doctor returning Monday morning, while Mrs. Martin will remain for a week or more.

Fred J. Dow and Arnet Cannon returned to the springs last Monday evening. Mr. Cannon will remain all winter.

Miss Mike Irons of Pasadena is spending a few weeks here for health and recreation.

J. J. McIndoo of Lindsay, orchardist, is registered at the Hotel Del Vedado. Mr. McIndoo spends a few weeks at the springs every year.

P. J. Cunningham, United States forest supervisor, was called to Bakersfield on account of sickness in his family.

Word was received from Mrs. Anna Oliver and Miss Cora Jones, who were called East recently on account of their father being seriously ill, that they were doing well with the "flu," but were rapidly recovering, their father also being much better.

Fred A. Minaker, owner of the Hot Springs-Ducor Transportation Company, is building a new bungalow on the flat just below the springs.

Leo Martin, assistant traffic manager of the California Hot Springs lumber line, is busy this week hauling lumber from the Deer Creek Lumber Company's mill a few miles above here for the Hot Springs Company.

WOUNDED SOLDIER VISITS CORCORAN

CORCORAN, Oct. 23.—Private Earl Farlow reached home Saturday. Farlow enlisted July 8, 1917, at Angel Island and was sent to France last December. Farlow was wounded on June 26 at Chemin des Dames. His right knee was shattered by a German rifle bullet. He was taken to a base hospital in France where the limb was operated on, and remained there until able to get around. He left France on September 25 for the United States. He is now convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. Joe Bernatz. Farlow is probably maimed for life. His limb pains him a great deal, but he is grateful that he could serve his country and would gladly go again if he were able. James W. Stokes of the U. S. navy at San Pedro will have on the day's furlough, visiting with his wife and relatives.

C. A. Rosa was calling on friends in Fresno on Saturday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. Larsen will be glad to learn that their little daughter, Lillian, who recently underwent a surgical operation at the Hanford sanitarium, is getting along nicely.

Leor Welsh received word from Sacramento that his son, Orville, is out of danger and is on the road to recovery.

Although the threatened epidemic of Spanish influenza is not serious in Corcoran the board of trustees are taking every precaution to prevent any further development. The schools, churches, library, theater, pool halls, and all public places of meeting are closed. Owing to the illness of the health officer, Dr. L. Peery, the board has appointed Dr. L. C. Hendrich as acting health officer for the time being. They also appointed O. D. Strong and Mrs. D. I. Brown to act with him in that capacity. At a meeting of the Red Cross held the latter part of the week it was decided to employ a trained nurse if such should be needed. Rooms have been arranged for at the Farmers' home where patients will be cared for in case of emergency.

FOREST FIRES ARE IN CONTROL

DUNLAP, Oct. 23.—A forest fire started at the Elk Springs near Gea last night, but a few days ago, also near Home. Supervisor Lyons has charge of a number of men fighting it and they now have it under control.

Albert Wright, wife and daughters, Misses Isola, Grace and Ethel, of Avoca, are visiting a few days at a distance from home, and are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright, and will remain all winter.

George Smith of Squaw Valley passed through Dunlap today on his way to Millwood, where he captured his cattle last summer, to gather up a few stragglers that he could not find when he brought his stock out.

Walter Akers and family and his father are stopping at Dr. J. L. Young's sanitarium, near here, on account of Mr. Akers' health.

George Foster's family have moved down from their ranch and are living with John Todd, and will send their children to school here.

Bird Evans is looking for a house in Dunlap for his family to live in this winter and send his children to school. It is hard to get houses here on account of many people coming here during the winter months for their health.

The Charles Neff resort is still doing a good business. He also is running his sawmill and has made a good profit this summer and disposed of all his lumber.

Rev. Hardie Connor and wife came from Aubrey last Friday and will hold protracted meetings here for the next three weeks. Everybody is cordially invited.

Rev. R. Baker of Farmerville is visiting with his mother here; Mrs. S. J. Baker, and will remain a few days.

Mrs. L. O. Robb has returned to her home here after an absence of several weeks in Fresno.

The Wizard of Ma's

Into the doughnut kettle, or the frying pan, or into the mixing bowl as shortening for fluffy cakes or flaky pie crust—these are a few of the many uses you can make of the same contents of a can of Kream Krisp. For after using Kream Krisp for frying, you only have to strain it to make it as good as new for another frying—or for shortening.

Once over the fire Kream Krisp heats quickly. Now put into it some fish croquettes—almost instantly it forms on them a crisp, brown crust. This crust formation not only means economy in the use of Kream Krisp in that it does not soak up the fat, but it makes the croquettes more palatable—wholesome—and easily digested.

Now in the same kettle you can fry doughnuts or potatoes. No matter how varied the frying in which Kream Krisp is used, it does not absorb flavors or taint foods.

Buy a can of Kream Krisp today and try it in your favorite recipes.

If You Want to Keep Well Do Not Neglect Your Teeth

Everyone wants good health—yet many who think they are doing everything they can to keep well neglect one of the most important factors in their health—and that is their teeth.

They do not realize that nervousness, headache, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc., are often caused by decaying teeth, in which disease germs lurk.

Let me warn you against neglecting your teeth. Let nothing prevent your having them put in order.

MILITARY DRILL GIVEN DRAFTEES

RAISIN CITY, Oct. 23.—The first meeting of the Raisin City military company was held outside at the school house on Monday evening. Nineteen answered roll call. After calling the boys to order the choosing of a leader was taken up. Owing to his former service in the regular army Mr. J. M. Brown was chosen leader. After this decision of the boys the meeting was turned over to Mr. Brown. The company was divided into squads; the first composed of the young boys, the second of the men. The two squads then separated, to choose their leaders. The first squad chose Galley Brown for first leader and Walter Adams for second, which in turn would be sergeant and corporal. The second chose C. E. Burnell and G. R. Matly. Friday at eight o'clock was the time decided upon to meet for drill practice and all who have signed the pledge are expected to be present, and all others who are interested in the work are welcome to join.

Mrs. W. Graham was taken to the hospital on Monday to undergo an operation. She has been ailing for some time and last week her physician told her an operation was necessary. Owing to the reporting of ten new cases of "flu" the local school board decided to suspend school all week. Indoor gatherings are being held. Church services have been discontinued and all possible measures are being employed to break up the epidemic.

PAY VISIT TO STUDENTS

SANGER, Oct. 23.—Mrs. F. D. Atkinson and Mrs. W. M. Barr left the last of the week for San Francisco, where they go for a few days' visit with their daughters, Miss Alice Barr, a nurse, and Miss Helen Atkinson, who is attending the state university.

Miss Harriett Corey of San Francisco, who has been visiting for the past month at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Quinn of Sanger, left Saturday for her home.

Cecil Quinn, who has been at home for the past week on account of the students' training school at Occidental College, Los Angeles, being closed by Spanish influenza, left Sunday to resume his work in school.

A quiet Sunday was passed in Sanger on account of all churches being closed by reason of the prevailing epidemic of Spanish influenza. All the schools are closed until further notice.

SOLDIER GOES TO CAMP IN VIRGINIA

POWELL, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Dr. A. D. Wilson and daughter, Mary, left this afternoon for Berkeley to see Kenneth Wilson, who is being transferred tomorrow to a Virginia camp. He has been a student at the University for the past two years.

C. F. Draper, of Kingsburg, has sold his residence property at the corner of Fifth and Modesto streets to W. M. Darr, who takes possession the first of the month.

Mrs. A. Atkinson has received word that her son, Charles, in the government forestry service at Warrington, Oregon, was suffering from crushed fingers, which will compel him to stop work for some time.

Mrs. Richard Carmichael, who has been at Hermosa Beach for the past seven weeks, on account of poor health, has sufficiently recovered to enable her to return home the first of the week.

Joseph McKibbin of Los Gatos arrived yesterday to make his home with his son, Prof. Thos. S. McKibbin of the high school teaching force.

Mrs. W. W. Baker of Reddy was in town today attending to business matters.

People of Fowler and vicinity are adopting the wearing of gauze masks as a prevention of the prevailing epidemic. Only one case, Mrs. J. W. Carson who has pneumonia, has been reported as serious. The forces at the several packing houses are all supplied with masks, and it is thought that the plants will be allowed to operate unless the contagion spreads.

BARBOUR IS MAKING VISITING CAMPAIGN IN NORTHERN TOWNS

MODESTO, Oct. 23.—Harry E. Barbour is now covering the upper part of the Seventh Congressional District, having made since Monday short stops in Merced, Madera, Fairmead, Chowchilla, Berenda, Merced, Atwater, Livingston, Turlock, Ceres, Modesto, Riverbank and Oakdale. He leaves Modesto tomorrow morning for a trip to towns on the West Side, and will return to Fresno on Saturday. The epidemic of influenza has not interfered so far with his plans, as he has not tried to hold any public meetings. He is very much pleased to find that the many offers of support given him by prominent Democrats during his trip through Kern and Tulare counties, are being duplicated in the northern part of the district. In speaking of this feature last night, Mr. Barbour said that the one thing which has impressed him most deeply in his campaign is the general acceptance of President Wilson's desire for adjournment, and yet finds a deep underlying interest in choosing a progressive candidate to represent the Seventh district in congress.

PNEUMONIA CAUSES DEATH IN HANFORD

HANFORD, Oct. 23.—The first death in Hanford, reported to have been due to pneumonia, following Spanish influenza, occurred this morning when William C. Clayton died at his home on Kaweah street after an illness of ten days.

The deceased was one of Hanford's young business men, a member of the firm of Lovelace & Clayton. He was 31 years of age, a native of Texas and was raised in this county, at Grangeville. His childhood was passed in Fresno county. After filling clerical positions with various clothing firms here for several years, after leaving school he engaged in partnership with J. C. Lovelace, a widow and one small daughter survive. The funeral will be held Friday morning, with private services at the Rice chapel, and thereafter the remains will be taken to the Washington Colony, cemetery at Easton, Fresno county, for burial. An escort of Elks and Odd Fellows will accompany the remains.

PLAN LECTURE SERIES

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 23.—Announcement was made this afternoon that Dr. O. J. Kern of the extension department of the University of California has agreed to come to this community and deliver lectures for three days. He is a recognized authority on school improvement, including the branch that has to do with community life. L. E. Chenoweth, county superintendent, is arranging the schedule and will complete arrangements with the various Sunday school rooms, and other facilities make it readily adaptable for this use, and a large crew of workmen has been busy engaged in putting the place in order. This plan of grouping the patients will enable many to have the skilled care of a nurse who would otherwise go without, and it will also greatly facilitate the work of physicians who are obliged to lose so much time in traveling from place to place.

COMMISSION HEARS IRRIGATION CASE

NEWMAN, Oct. 23.—A hearing was given the Stevinson Irrigators at the city hall Monday afternoon, when a large number of complaining citizens of Stevinson appeared before the Railroad Commissioners on the application of the East Side Canal and Irrigation company, a corporation owning the water system of Stevinson, and affiliated with the company owning the land for a raise in water rates sufficient to enable the corporation to earn 6 percent on the capital investment in the property. After the hearing the matter was left with the body for adjustment. Attorney Bennett of Modesto defended the interests of the irrigators.

Mrs. Chas. McKnight of San Francisco returned to her home the first of the week, after a visit here with Mrs. Kull Fisher.

Chas. Huber and Lena Russ made a trip to Palo Alto Tuesday.

Mrs. W. H. Tinnen had an interesting letter from her son Rowell, who is in the thickest of it and had gone over the top once, his company taking 5,000 prisoners and 100 guns during the great drive. They were willing prisoners, being tired of fighting.

Mrs. Freda Russ, who went from here only a few days ago, saw a nurse fell a victim to influenza and died Monday in the base hospital at Camp Fremont. The body will be shipped here for burial. She leaves an uncle, Louis Russ here and has two brothers, Walter and Albert in the army. She received her training as a nurse at Lane's hospital.

NAME MANAGER FOR WAR DRIVE

VISALIA, Oct. 23.—R. J. Crone of Visalia has been chosen Tulare county campaign manager for the united war drive which opens November 11 and continues one week. He will be assisted by Earl P. Dexter of Lindsay, Tulare county's M. C. A. secretary; Nathan Levy and E. Hyde. The district divisions, same district committees and same percentage of the county quota as in the recent Liberty loan campaign will be employed in this drive for the county's quota of $74,800 in the national drive for $100,000. The district allotments, figured on the same basis resources and percentages thereof as in the fourth Liberty loan, are:

Visalia, $25,035; Dinuba, $8,848; Daguerre, $1,204; Exeter, $1,204; Lindsay, $8,848; Arvin, $1,204; Porterville, $1,204; Strathmore, $239; Terra Bella, $1,040; Tulare, $12,148; Woodlake, $339.

SEND FORTY-THREE SOLDIERS TO CAMP

VISALIA, Oct. 23.—Howard E. May of Orosi captured the forty-three young men who left Visalia this morning at 4:10 for Fort Rosecrans, San Diego, answering the latest draft call on division No. 1, Tulare county. Under new draft board rulings he was given four assistants, they being: J. Willard Jobe, of Visalia; Erwin Munson, Dinuba; Lloyd J. Lazzari, Tulare; and Albert B. Stroben, Visalia.

INFLUENZA CAUSES DEATH AT TULARE

TULARE, Oct. 23.—Tulare's first death from influenza occurred this morning when J. J. Hawkins died at a local hospital. The actual cause of his death was diagnosed as pneumonia, but it was followed by an attack of influenza. Mr. Hawkins' wife and three small children, the oldest a girl of 9 years, arrived in Tulare ten days ago to visit the family of Lee Mullins. The entire family were taken down with influenza a few days after their arrival. Mrs. Hawkins and the children are now on the road to recovery.

TULAREANS BEGIN DRILLING

TULARE, Oct. 23.—About twenty-five young men of Tulare assembled on the high school grounds last night for drill, notice of the gathering having been published the day before. Most of the men are in the draft, but a number are men who have already been called and exempted. Late in the afternoon Harry Talmage, a local man and former lieutenant of militia, who was to drill the men, was taken down with influenza and Major J. L. Drew, principal of the local high school and commandant of the high school cadet corps, took command of the men. So much interest and enthusiasm were shown by those assembled that it was decided to meet and drill every evening this week.

RUSSIAN THISTLES APPEAR

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 23.—C. H. Doyle, the inspector for the horticultural office here, has received report from various parts of the city that Russian thistles have made their appearance. Mr. Doyle will make a careful inspection of all city property. Work against the Arizona thistle has been in progress for some time and this pest is now practically under control.

INFLUENZA REACHES PEAK AT VISALIA: REPORT FEW CASES

VISALIA, Oct. 23.—Spanish influenza cases in Visalia have been falling away steadily for the past several days leading to the belief that the epidemic in this city has passed the peak and now on the wane. To noon today only six new cases had been reported as compared with over twice that number for the same period the day before and a still larger number on the preceding day. Thus far there have been but two deaths—those reported when the malady first made its appearance.

Under rush orders work was begun this morning at the county hospital, in Visalia, on a new frame building to be thrown up as rapidly as possible, to care for the influenza cases brought to the hospital from all parts of the county. At first all carpenters in the city were commandeered for the work, but later arrangements were made whereby some carpenters were allowed to continue their present work, and enough men were found to throw the temporary structure up.

NUMEROUS MASKS WORN IN MODESTO

MODESTO, Oct. 23.—All store employees and those connected in any way with serving the public, appeared at their places of business this morning wearing masks, as a prevention of influenza, in compliance with the order given yesterday by City Health Officer Dr. J. K. Ransom. The Modesto Red Cross chapter is making 1,000 masks for use of those who need them. The influenza is not increasing to any extent in this city, and authorities are taking every possible measure to insure its destruction. Only six new cases were reported yesterday and none of these were serious.

The school board was ordered closed yesterday, when it was found that school children have been gathering there to read and study.

OMIT PUBLIC GATHERINGS

THREE RIVERS, Oct. 23.—Owing to one case of influenza at power house No. 1, all public gatherings have been postponed, indefinitely, among them the annual meeting of the Red Cross, which was to have been held yesterday evening, October 23. The nominating committee has handled in the following names as candidates for the board of directors for the coming year: Mrs. J. H. Pierce, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mrs. Annie Granger, Mrs. Katherine Yarnes, Mrs. J. C. Foster, Mrs. Fredrick Burdman, Mrs. Noel Britten, Mrs. Phillip Allen, Mrs. William Swanson, Miss Frankie Welch, Miss Verne Granger, Mrs. P. S. Savage, Mr. Judd Black, Mr. Guy Hopfing, Mr. Adam Allen, Mr. T. E. Griffith, Mr. Laurence Hough.

INFLUENZA IS SUBSIDING

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 23.—Physicians yesterday reported no new cases of influenza to the city board of health, and the total to date for the city proper therefore stands at four. Five other cases have been reported from the immediately surrounding district. Such cases as have been under the care of physicians appear to have been of a very mild type. There has been an epidemic of several kinds, but none of them have been of sufficient virulence to confine their victims to their homes.

SOLDIER WILL BE BURIED IN HANFORD

HANFORD, Oct. 23.—The remains of Private Clarence Compton, who died several days ago at Camp Fremont of complications incident to Spanish influenza arrived here today under the escort of Private Roy Keeler, detailed at the camp to bring them here. The soldier was buried in flowers sent by the Palo Alto Woman's Club. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when private services will be conducted at the Russell chapel and a public service with military honors following at the Hanford cemetery. The Rev. W. C. Dexter of the First Methodist church will officiate.

TULAREAN WINS ARMY PROMOTION

TULARE, Oct. 23.—Another soldier from Tulare has received a commission in the army. Harold P. Bird, who enlisted nearly two years ago and who is now stationed at Camp Lewis, was commissioned a lieutenant a few days ago. That the young lieutenant is a notable athlete is evidenced by the fact that recently he was given a medal for performing a feat that has not been equalled in any cantonment in the country, that of jumping 18 feet and 3 inches in his uniform, wearing regulation shoes and with his rifle in his hand.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

PORTERVILLE, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Andrew Leslie yesterday received word of the death in Livermore, after a protracted illness, of Mrs. Bernice H. McClain, wife of C. A. McClain, who for a number of years was a resident of this city. Mr. McClain at one time owned the tract of land now known as Monte Vista, disposing of it to the Pioneer Land Co. He was also owner of the flour mills, the building for which now stands in Lot 9 Burbank Park, and which he sold nearly thirty years ago to Andrew Leslie, Jr., and Mr. McClain moved from here shortly after they disposed of their property interests in this city and district.

RICE HARVESTING BEGINS AT CLAUS

RIVERBANK, Oct. 23.—The rice harvest in the Claus neighborhood is now under headway and where the ranchmen had a sufficient supply of water, the yield is handsome, running up to fifty bags per acre on many of the ranches. A number of the ranchers were late putting in their crops and did not install pumping plants in time to secure a good crop, but there are several hundreds of acres that will run to fifty sacks per acre and rice is now selling at not less than 12 cents per pound. Some of the heaviest fields in that particular neighborhood are the Baggs ranch, comprising 50 acres; Chas. Hart, 40 acres; W. L. Chatter, 18 acres; L. W. Miller, 15 acres, and a large acreage of the Lenart Park place. A number of adjoining places will yield fully as heavy as the above named ranches. The working places of 90 acres was planted too late in the season to secure good results on account of not having their pumping systems installed and they will only harvest 30 acres. However, Mr. Watkins has much on to the property, the Hoechmer Mercantile Company is one of high standing in Central California, and one of the largest in Bakersfield. The change made made on account of the name being American. The new name, the Hoechmer brothers firm, has a thoroughly loyal following in both the city and county. The Hoechmer brothers are serving Uncle Sam, with the motor division of the army and Monroe is attending the officers' training school at Mount Tamalpais.

PERMITS CHANGE OF NAMES

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 23.—Judge Mahon granted a petition in the Kern county Superior Court to Ira and Monroe Hoechmer to change their names from Hoechmer to Hoechmer. Arrangements will be made immediately to suit the new names. The Hoechmer Mercantile Company is one of high standing in Central California, and one of the largest in Bakersfield. The change made made on account of the name being American. The new name, the Hoechmer brothers firm, has a thoroughly loyal following in both the city and county. MODESTO VOTES TO BOND FOR $77,500

MODESTO, Oct. 23.—Voters of Modesto yesterday approved issuance of $77,500 bonds for city improvements. One of the five propositions, that of $2,500 for purchase of equipment for street cleaning, was lost. The four which carry are: $15,000 for paving street intersections; $12,500 for fire fighting equipment; $20,000 for sanitary sewers, and $30,000 for permanent water extensions.

Mind your eye!

A BUG darts at your eye. Your eye closes—before you think. Reflex action. Your eye telegraphs to your brain "Bug coming!" Your brain flashes back "Close up!" You aren't conscious of the exchange of messages—but your eyelids close. Force of habit protects you. Habit and reflex action save time and effort in numberless ways, and keep your brain clear for the real problem.

Habit, for example, sets the hour when the delicate departments of your digestion combine in a supreme reflex action to move your bowels. Nujol cultivates that habit. If they move regularly all you know is that you feel well. If they don't move regularly, you know it—the habit has failed. The food waste stagnates in your large intestine, decays, generates poisons, which are absorbed into your blood and carried all over your body. Your next effort will be more difficult—and soon the bad habit of constipation will be established. The good habit of regularity is replaced by the bad habit of irregularity—reflex action is paralyzed, and the waste accumulates.

Don't exchange a good habit for a bad one. Nujol builds such a strong habit that it offers a maximum of resistance to the clogging of the intestines. Don't wait until you're "sick" to start. Nujol night and morning will give you a reflex action as "regular as clockwork." Be as proud of your inside cleanliness as you are of a clean face and clean teeth. Pills, purgative mineral waters, salts, castor oil and other cathartics, weaken and cause strain. They increase constipation. Nujol acts easily, harmlessly, naturally. Your druggist has it.

COMMITTEE ON WAR WORK MEETS THIS AFTERNOON

Dr. Wheeler, Direct From Front in France, to Address Leaders

Open-Air Meeting Elks' Roof Garden at 4: Plan Campaign

The general committee on the United War Work campaign in Fresno city and county was named by the executive officers yesterday. The exact amount to be raised in the entire county, it was announced, will be $148,000. The quotas to be raised by the various cities and towns will be announced later, and will be based on four factors of comparison. These are the school attendance, the population, bank deposits, and the taxable valuation. It is planned to make the division entirely fair. The campaign will open November 11 and close November 18.

A meeting of the general committee, with about 65 members of which have already been named will be called for 4 o'clock this afternoon on the roof garden of the Elks club. The general public is also invited to this open air meeting. Directions will be given, and plans for expediting the campaign adopted.

Victory Costs Money

Dr. C. L. Wheeler of Chicago, who has just returned from a tour of the camps and battle lines in France will speak this afternoon. Dr. Wheeler reports the conditions abroad, reports for the government that when the American army is moving forward, it is necessary continually to construct new rest places and send additional men to keep up with the work.

Headquarters will be opened today at 1300 J street, and will remain open until the close of the campaign.

The seven agencies are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., National Catholic

Arrivals Overseas

Fresno county auto racing men are now in France racing after the flying Hun. At least the Drake brothers, of Reedley, are in the flying service, and have to keep changing their base as they keep up with the marching progress of America's two millions.

J. A. Drake, of Reedley, has received announcement of the safe arrival overseas of his two sons, L. P. Drake and Lawrence (Dutch) Drake. Both boys are in the aviation ground service as mechanics. They were both well known throughout the valley as expert auto mechanics and will be remembered as the builder and driver of the car which won the races at Visalia on July 4, 1917, when it set a permanent track record at Visalia as the fastest car of its size ever built.

Harry E. Crane is seeing duty abroad. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Jorgensen, at Reedley, have received word of his safe arrival. He enlisted May 21 in Company No. 1, motor truck service.

Charles E. Turner, who went into the well known 19th Engineers in March, writes his brother, Walter D. Turner, 2312 Lewis avenue, that he is dressed in tan and woolen clothes, and on his way across the "big ditch."

Committees will soon be named for Coalinga, Mendota, Tranquillity, San Joaquin City.

ALL ARE ORDERED TO WEAR 'FLU' MASKS TODAY

Police Power to Be Used to Enforce Health Board Order

Unless All Don Masks Entire City Will Be Ordered Closed

Every man, woman and child who walks on Fresno's streets today must wear a gauze "flu" mask. No exceptions will be made. And the police have been ordered to stop any person who appears to public without a mask.

These drastic measures were adopted last night at a conference between Mayor Toomey and Health Officer Mathewson after a careful investigation proved that hundreds had ignored yesterday's order. So many excuses were made, so many persons denied that they came with yesterday's order, so many denied that they served the public that the mayor and Dr. Mathewson determined to make the order general.

"The public is given two alternatives," declared Mayor Toomey, following the decision to compel every person who goes out of doors or is employed anywhere in any occupation down town to wear protecting masks. "One of these alternatives is to obey the order. The other is to force the city officials to close up the city completely until the epidemic has passed. Closing up the city means that every store, every business establishment in the city will be compelled to close its doors and keep them closed until all danger has passed. If it becomes necessary to close the city up tight because of the failure of the public to take means to protect themselves against the affected or the lack of consideration for others, then who knows themselves to be affected, every store in the city will be closed except the drug stores and even these will be allowed to keep only their drug departments open. Groceries, butcher shops and bakeries will, if it becomes necessary to close up the entire city, be allowed to remain open only for two hours every morning—just long enough enough for people to buy necessities. Restaurants will be allowed only to furnish food and carry out orders. Their places. Patrons will not be allowed to crowd into cafes and such attractions as cabarets, calculated to keep people in cafes, will also be shut down.

All Must Wear Masks

"It will not be just for the indifference or the selfish to put these hardships upon the general business public simply because they feel that their personal appearance is not enhanced by wearing the mask. For this reason and in justice to those who obey the rules of the board of health every effort will be made to enforce the order before we take the extreme step of closing up the city. All police officers have been ordered to patrol with this in mind and to stop every man, woman and child appearing on the streets and in the belief that we have power, under the health laws of the state, to protect the public health by the use of the city's police powers, those who fail to comply with this order will be placed under arrest."

"I believe even the merchants would prefer to lose a week's business by being closed up tight than lose 80 per cent of their business for six succeeding weeks. I trust that the public will respond to the health board's order without compelling the city to enforce it by use of the police."

Dr. Mathewson, city health officer, announced last night that the day's record was as follows:

147 cases.

5 deaths.

Co. Hospital Equipped:

The work of equipping the county orphanage as a hospital for pay patients was completed yesterday and the prices were announced as follows: $3 a day in wards and $4 a day in private rooms, the beds all being separated by sterilized sheets. The adult indigent cases will be cared for in the regular county hospital wards and all day yesterday the city was at work preparing the children's day nursery for the reception of patients. This work was in charge of Mayor's Secretary George T. Johnson. The parental school will also be converted into a hospital should necessity require further accommodations.

Dr. W. W. Cross, according to announcement by Dr. Mathewson last night, had donated his entire services to the care of influenza patients with the exception of passes and he will have charge of the two temporary hospitals.

Mayor Toomey appeared at the city hall yesterday with a mask and all city and county employees wore masks. One of the down town drug stores had an order last night to make 500 masks for the employees of one packing house. There was a rush for masks and gauze all day long at the different drug stores and some bought pickled gas masks for $2 each until the entire supply was exhausted.

"I hope everyone will buy masks at the Red Cross station in the old Chamber of Commerce building," announced Dr. Mathewson last night. "The Red Cross station spent all day making masks and by tonight their supply was exhausted. By morning, however, they will have a new supply. They are making a perfect mask for 10 cents each, while the drug stores are charging from 15 cents to 25 cents. The Red Cross women have donated their services to this work and I have advised them that it is perfectly safe for them to make masks if they themselves wear the masks."

"Proven Entirely Satisfactory"

Only perfect satisfaction can account for the use of ZEROLENE by the majority of automobile owners.

Leading coast distributors also testify that it is "a most satisfactory motor oil." They know from the records of their service departments—and we know from exhaustive tests—that ZEROLENE, correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude, gives perfect lubrication with least carbon deposit.

ZEROLENE is the correct oil for all types of automobile engines. It is the correct oil for your automobile. Get our lubrication chart showing the correct consistency for your car.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

ZEROLENE

The Standard Oil for Motor Cars

Correct Lubrication for the "L"-Head Type Engine

Some of the popular automobiles of today are equipped with engines of the "L"-Head type, illustrated here. These engines, like all internal combustion engines, require an oil that maintains its full lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the combustion chambers and goes out with exhaust. ZEROLENE fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

ZEROLENE is made in several consistencies to meet with scientific exactness the lubrication needs of all types of automobile engines. Get our Correct Lubrication Chart covering your car. At dealers everywhere and Standard Oil Service Stations.

MAY PROSECUTE GAME HUNTERS

Numerous complaints have been received by the U. S. marshal's office and the department of justice of hunters in the Britto, Dos Palos, Los Banos and Firebaugh districts, falling to observe the law by beginning to shoot birds before the opening hours of the day. Said George Hudson, special agent, yesterday:

It is unlawful to shoot resident game birds between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise, or to shoot migratory game between sunset and sunrise.

Ducks are classed as migratory and quail as resident birds.

There are numerous federal men in those districts, who will arrest any offenders and prosecute them vigorously under the federal laws, which are more severe than local statutes.

INFANT PASSED AWAY

Shelia, the infant daughter of Captain and Mrs. G. S. Shepherd, recently arrived here from Canada, died in the city yesterday. The body was cremated yesterday.
